Robbers Take $66 In Market At Wellsville

Masked Stickup Pair Threatens 4 To Get Money In Register

Two men wearing handkerchiefs over the lower part of their faces held up the McAllister Market, 1201 Main St., Wellsville, Saturday night about 9:50.

Two clerks and two customers were in the store when the two quietly entered the front door. One was carrying either a rifle or a shotgun and the second apparently was not armed.

Police said the one with the gun stationed himself at the front door while the other moved a clerk, Mrs. Carla Buchanan of Hillcrest, to the cash register, where he scooped up about $66 in $5 and $10 bills.

Police described the operation as "fast, polite and accurate." A boy and a woman also were in the store, but the two did not offer to take any money from them.

Miss Agnes Tedeschi of Route 45, Wellsville, was in the milk cooler at the time and did not realize anything was amiss.

The two men never talked aloud, using only whispered voices. The one man told Mrs. Buchanan it was a holdup and that he wanted the money. Nothing else was said.

It is not known how the two escaped or in what direction they fled.

Mrs. Wavelene Wagner of Wells Ave., the manager, was not at the store at the time.

Police said one of the men was described as slender and with a pointed face. The other was stocky. Both were wearing overalls and one had on a jacket.

The entire incident occurred within a very brief period, according to those in the store.

Police Chief John Hepner said that according to the description, the gun carried by the one could have been either a rifle or a shotgun, but that he believes it probably was a rifle.

An alert and description of the two was broadcast immediately to area police, but no trace of them has been found.

'Back Jack' Public Asked

Party Aides Urging Congressional Mail

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats are launching a big effort to bring public pressure to bear on Congress for enactment of President Kennedy's New Frontier program.

Instructions have gone out from the Democratic National Committee to party workers across the country to drum up support for the President's program by urging citizens to write and call their senators and congressmen. Margaret Price, vice chairman of the committee, is sponsoring a "Support the President" drive among women. She has pointed out in its initial stages toward exerting pressure on the Senate to get the kind of minimum wage bill Kennedy wants.

Kennedy's proposal for a step-by-step increase in the minimum wage from $1 to $1.25 an hour, with an extension of coverage to

Plane Lands Safely Despite Damaged Tire

BOSTON (AP)—"There wasn't a whisper. Everyone was waiting to see what would happen."

That was one passenger's description of the tension aboard an Eastern Air Lines Electra Sunday night as the big turbo-prop plane — with a damaged tire on one of its nose wheels—slid down for a safe landing on a foam-slicked runway at Logan International Airport.

The plane carried 65 passengers and a crew of 5 on a flight that began at Atlanta, with stops at Raleigh-Durham, N.C., Richmond, Va., and La Guardia Field, New York.

Landing gear trouble plagued a Trans-Canada Air Lines plane at almost the same time at Montreal International Airport.

In that case, the four-engine Vickers Vanguard from Tampa belly-landed with 42 passengers and 7 crewmen after circling the field for nearly two hours in an unsuccessful effort to free a stuck left wheel.

There were no reports of injuries in either incident.

The Electra apparently stripped the tread from its left nose wheel on takeoff from La Guardia. Capt. Arthur A. Hinkley of Hampton, N.H., the pilot, radioed that he felt a tire had blown. Pieces of the tire were found on the runway.

That set in motion extraordinary disaster measures at Logan, including 30 fire trucks, ambulances and harbor rescue craft.

Tension mounted as the big plane circled Boston for 2 hours and 8 minutes to use up fuel. The plane finally rolled safely down the runway through 1,500 feet of foam.

Jane Stein, 18, of Scarsdale, N.Y., a pretty Boston University freshman, burst off the plane, threw her arms around the first man she saw, a reporter, and kissed him soundly. "This is how I feel," she explained.

Miss Stein said "Everyone sort of held their breath. There was a moment of complete silence as the plane came in to land after making a trial pass over the field."

"We could feel the wheels touch down and I could feel the tension increase. There wasn't a whisper. Everyone was waiting to see what would happen."

"When we felt the plane come down and roll to a stop, we broke into yells and cheers as we realized everything was all right."

Blast Of Shotgun Kills Man At Burgettstown

BURGETTSTOWN — Thomas A. Ritson, 25, of nearby Sturgeon was shot and killed at the Eagles Club there today at 1:10 a. m. by his cousin, Thomas J. Ritson, 35, police said.

The Carnegie Barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police, which investigated, said the younger Ritson was hit in the side by a blast from a shotgun. Both had argued at the club, police said.

Thomas J. Ritson is being held in the Allegheny County Jail.

Pope Blesses 10,000

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII today gave his blessing to more than 10,000 Easter tourists and Romans gathered in St. Peter's Square.

Cold Weather Fails To Daunt Easter Bunny

Rites Attract Crowds At District Churches, Despite More Snow

Crowds attended services throughout the East Liverpool district Sunday as Christians marked the anniversary of Christ's Resurrection, but the traditional Easter parade which followed moved at a brisk cadence because of cold weather and an inch of new snow.

The temperature was only 34 — just two degrees above freezing — at noon yesterday when the largest crowds emerged from worship. In many cases, winter coats were taken out of mothballs again for use over new spring outfits and overshoes and boots covered new shoes.

About an inch of new snow fell in most parts of the East Liverpool district Saturday night and early Sunday, resulting in a setting that looked more like Christmas. In some areas, the snow melted as it fell, but in the suburbs it accumulated atop the snow which fell Saturday.

The weatherman never did provide proper temperatures for the Easter celebration. The mercury struggled up to 36 at 2 p. m. and that proved to be the high for the day. The overnight low was 29.

About 500 attended the second annual community Easter sunrise service at the Westgate School, which was sponsored by the East Liverpool Ministerial Association and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The service had been planned as an outdoor event at Patterson Field, but weather conditions forced the change to the school auditorium.

A free-will offering of about $100 was received. After expenses are covered, the remainder will be turned over to the Ministerial Association.

The 24th annual sunrise service of Pilgrim Commandery 55, Knights Templar, at the Masonic Temple attracted about 275.

At the First Church of the Nazarene, of which the Rev. James Hunton is pastor, about 1,000 persons gathered for the 10:45 a. m. service. An offering of about $2,600 was received for world evangelism.

The 11 a. m. service at the First United Presbyterian Church was attended by 350. Dr. A. K. Davison is pastor.

About 670 attended the 10:30 a. m. service at the First Church of Christ, of which John Mostoller is minister.

The Easter Midnight Mass at St. Aloysius Catholic Church drew about 500. Fr. Carl Nicolay, pastor, was the celebrant.

Approximately 875 attended the 11 a. m. worship at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

45 Attend Joint Rites Staged At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — Forty-five attended Sunday Easter sunrise services held Sunday morning at the Calvary United Presbyterian Chapel.

The Rev. James McCollam of the host church was speaker. Breakfast was served following the service in the church Sunday School rooms by the Senior Young people.

Finch admitted, too, that he and Carole tried to hire jailbird Jack Cody. But the doctor insisted Cody was simply to get divorce evidence. Cody claimed he was hired as a killer.

U.S., Britain Ready Reply To Russians

Lord Home Waited By Rusk To Prepare Soviet Note Answer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lord Home, the British foreign minister, arrives here tonight to start preliminary work with Secretary of State Dean Rusk on a Western reply to the Soviet Union's note on Laos.

They are expected to have a draft reply ready when Prime Minister Harold Macmillan reaches here late Tuesday afternoon for conferences with President Kennedy.

U.S. officials speculated it is unlikely the reply will be delayed until the end of Macmillan's visit. The U.S. and British evaluations of the Soviet note virtually are identical.

The Soviet Union, in its note to Britain last Saturday, agreed with the British proposal to hold a 14-nation conference on the political future of Laos, but remained vague on the timing of a cease-fire, which the British, backed by the United States, proposed as a first step.

Kennedy said in a statement that he viewed the Soviet note as a "useful next step toward peaceful settlement of a potentially dangerous situation."

In Laos, fighting subsided Sunday as military sources reported no new major encounters with pro-Communist rebels. The government said Saturday the rebels were attacking three major points in eastern and southern Laos.

In Washington, officials cautioned that claims of the royal Laotian government about a large-scale rebel offensive should be considered with reservations.

Rusk and his top aides, among them Charles E. Bohlen, ranking Soviet expert, and Richard Usher, deputy director of the State Department's Southeast Asian Office, met for almost three hours Sunday.

Officials indicated that the United States would insist on an effective cease-fire before it entered any international conference to settle Laos' fate.

Jury Weighs Life Or Death In Finch Case

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Death in the gas chamber? Life imprisonment?

Those grim alternatives faced Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 43, and Carole Tregoff, 24, today. Ahead lay perhaps their biggest ordeal in three murder trials: Awaiting a jury's decree of their penalty for murdering Finch's beautiful socialite wife, Barbara Jean, 36.

The jury decided their guilt a week ago. Its only remaining choices today are death or life for either or both.

The 10 men and 2 women in four days convicted the once rich suburban physician of first-degree murder, his formerly trim mistress of second-degree murder—and both of conspiracy to commit murder. The conspiracy and first-degree convictions both are capital offenses; second-degree murder carries a penalty of five years to life.

Two predominantly woman juries had each tried vainly for weeks to agree on a verdict in earlier trials.

Prosecutors said the playboy doctor and red-haired divorcee plotted to kill Mrs. Finch so they could wed without splitting Finch's estate with her.

Finch admitted holding the pistol when it shot his estranged wife in the back during a wild struggle outside their West Covina home late July 18, 1959. He called it an accident.

Finch admitted, too, that he and Carole tried to hire jailbird Jack Cody. But the doctor insisted Cody was simply to get divorce evidence. Cody claimed he was hired as a killer.

Motorist Dies As Auto Skids, Rams Culvert

Stuebenville Driver Loses Life In Crash Near Burgettstown

William Gaulesky, 39, of 508 Hill Ave., Steubenville, was killed and a passenger was injured Sunday at 11:30 p. m. when their car slammed sideways into a culvert on Route 18 about a mile north of Burgettstown.

Gaulesky was pinned in the wreck and died of internal injuries, the Carnegie barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police said. The passenger, Benjamin Chihocky, 52, of Steubenville, is a patient in Weirton General Hospital with lacerations of the head and face.

Police said Mr. Gaulesky failed to make a curve and skidded into the culvert. The side of the 1959 hardtop was caved in. Damage was estimated at $1,900.

The body is at the Lee and Wilson Funeral Home in Burgettstown.

Meanwhile, a Cleveland woman is in "fairly good" condition today in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital and a Hookstown R. D. 1 girl was treated after a pickup truck and car collided Saturday morning on snow-covered Route 168 about two miles south of Laughlins Corners.

Mrs. Beryl Shaver, 43, of Ivanhoe Rd., Cleveland, received a laceration of the lip and possible fracture of her left lower leg. Miss Donna Halstead of Hookstown R. D. 1 was treated for a possible fracture of her left shoulder and released.

The Carnegie barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police said Miss Halstead was a passenger in a pickup truck operated by Wallace S. Cain, 65, of Hookstown R. D. 1, which started to skid and crossed over into the path of a car driven by Duane Shaver, 39, of Cleveland, in which Mrs. Shaver was a passenger.

There was about $800 damage to both vehicles, police said. The accident occurred at 10:30 a. m.

Stagehand Strike Hits CBS Television Studio

NEW YORK (AP)—Three hundred stagehands employed by the Columbia Broadcasting System have walked out as a result of the network's dismissal of three TV lighting directors.

There was no immediate effect on regularly scheduled shows. Supervisory personnel took over the stagehands' duties, the network said.

Short Change Artists Obtain $9 With Trick

Two short-change artists obtained $9 by trickery from an attendant at an East End service station Saturday night after buying $1 worth of gasoline, police reported.

The money was obtained from Phillip Chan, an attendant at Jordan's Service Station at Pennsylvania Ave. and Mulberry St., operated by Merle Jordan, 523 Mulberry St., officers said.

It was one of four cases of theft, burglary and larceny reported over the weekend.

The short change trick at the service station was reported to police at 7:18 p. m. Saturday. Driving a 1950 model auto with Ohio plates, the two purchased the gasoline, then confused by attendant with double talk while he was making the change, police said.

The driver of the car was 6 feet 1 and of medium build and his passenger was 5 feet 11, of heavy build, officers said. Both wore green jackets.

An investigation is continuing into a burglary at Westgate School to determine if there was a loss, officers said. The building was entered between Saturday night and 2 a. m. Sunday by intruders who obtained a pass key "from some unknown place" to enter many of the rooms and ransack the desks, officers said.

A pane of glass was broken in a ground floor window on the northeast end of the building. Another window was broken on the second floor.

The intruders apparently concentrated their search on money, as they left undisturbed such items as boxes of candy and food, tools and cartons of soft drinks, officers said. In ransacking the rooms, the intruders removed money envelopes and change purses from the desks and strewn them haphazardly atop the desks, police said.

Myrna McComas of Oakmont told police her black purse containing about $55 was stolen early Saturday afternoon while she shopped downtown. She did not pinpoint the place of the theft. The purse contained a $50 bill, a $5, some keys and some cards, she said.

Lawrence Moore, 507 John St., told police at 4:30 p. m. Saturday that a tire and wheel worth approximately $90 were stolen from his 1955 model auto between 7 p. m. Friday and 4:25 p. m. Saturday while it was parked in the 500 block of John St.

Man Arrested For Car Theft After Pursuit

City Officer Chases Thief To Ohioville, Where Auto Wrecks

A 34-year-old Smiths Ferry area man was nabbed at a roadblock in Ohioville early Sunday when he jumped and ran from a stolen car after a wild chase by a pursuing East Liverpool policeman.

Clifford Eugene McDole of Smiths Ferry R. D. 1 is being held in the Midland jail to be turned over to the FBI on charges of interstate transportation of a stolen car, Ohio Township Constable Bernard Zlatovich reported.

McDole was taken into custody by Patrolman Jerry Adkins, who pursued him from East Liverpool, and the constable, who set up a roadblock at Ohioville. McDole wrecked the car at the roadblock and then ran several hundred yards, but gave up when he fell after several warning shots were fired, police said.

He was pursued for the theft of a 1953 four-door sedan which Dave Moore, 812 Broadway, Wellsville, reported stolen between 3:30 and 3:36 a. m. Sunday from Market St. near 5th St.

Zlatovich has charged McDole with auto theft, resisting arrest and assault with an auto.

Adkins was in a cruiser at Harvey Ave. and Putnam St. Sunday at 3:40 a. m. when he was notified of the theft by headquarters. Five minutes later, the stolen car passed him going east and he turned around to pursue.

Adkins turned on his siren and red warning light but McDole picked up speed. Adkins radioed headquarters, which notified Midland police and Zlatovich.

McDole made a left turn into the Calcutta-Smiths Ferry Rd. Adkins could not catch him since roads were slick and both cars were sliding. McDole then made a right turn toward Beaver Creek on the creek road, the old Smiths Ferry Calcutta Rd., and went along the creek back to the Beaver Creek Bridge. Adkins was only 100 feet behind.

McDole went through Smiths Ferry and back up on to Route 68, then up the hill onto Route 278 in Ohioville, where Zlatovich had a roadblock set up. McDole approached at a high rate of speed and Zlatovich was standing in the road with his flashlight, trying to halt him.

Zlatovich had to jump off the road.

SEATO Gets Threat From Red Minister

Chen Yi Says China Will Also Send Men Should Alliance Act

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Red China today held a threat over the West to turn Laos into another Korea if the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization sends troops into the strife-torn Indochina kingdom.

Peiping's Foreign Minister Chen Yi, winding up a visit to Indonesia, told newsmen that if SEATO sends troops into Laos, "then China will also send troops."

Marshal Chen Yi, who commanded the Chinese Communist 3rd Army before becoming foreign minister, alluded to SEATO's warning that it was prepared to take "appropriate action" to prevent an armed Communist takeover in Laos.

The foreign minister said Peiping's solution to the fighting between pro-Western and pro-Communist forces in Laos is to "let the Laotian people settle their differences themselves and withdraw all foreign intervention. This would insure peace and neutrality in the country."

Chen Yi left before newsmen got a chance to question him about Moscow's latest proposals on Laos. But Peiping has declared a willingness to participate in the proposed 14-nation conference on the political future of Laos.

A communique on Chen Yi's talks with Indonesian President Sukarno contended that the United Nations efforts to solve world problems would be seriously weakened unless Peiping is admitted to membership in the international organization.

On Laos and the Congo, the two leaders declared: "All foreign intervention in all its forms and manifestations in these two countries should be discontinued."

The situation in Laos was described Sunday by Malaysian

Kennedy Sets DeGaulle Visit

President Planning Paris Trip For May

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy will visit Paris for three days starting May 31 for talks with French President Charles de Gaulle.

The President's vacation headquarters withheld comment on the trip plans, but sources here confirmed reports from Paris.

Kennedy, who will be making his first visit abroad since becoming President. He will be accompanied by his wife, Jacqueline.

There was no immediate word whether Kennedy also will visit London for conferences with Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

They are scheduled to start a round of talks in Washington on Wednesday.

Kennedy and De Gaulle had been in correspondence lately regarding the crisis in Communist-occupied Laos.

The visit was being greeted as a considerable diplomatic victory for President de Gaulle and a sign of Kennedy's respect for France's World War II hero.

Charges Face Man Who Fled

Two charges have been filed against Charles Tice, 25, of 2019 Danbury Ave., Wellsville, as the aftermath of a shooting at his home early Friday morning.

Tice escaped after shooting Patrolman Frank D. Daniels, 26, who started to place him under arrest in connection with charges that he was suspected of abusing his wife's 15-year-old daughter by a previous marriage.

Tice still is at large. Police Chief John Hepner filed a charge of shooting with intent to kill or wound in County Court at Lisbon Saturday. He also filed a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor in Juvenile Court.

Patrolman Daniels was shot in the right wrist. He was hiding at the Tice home to take him into custody after Mrs. Celda M. Smith Tice charge he was abusing her daughter.

Hepner said today they have heard all kinds of rumors, including ones that he has left the state, but nothing has checked out as of yet.

He said he has conferred with FBI officials, but they have not entered the case. The FBI may enter a case when it is assumed a suspect has fled across a state line in an effort to avoid prosecution.

The House then passed a Republican substitute raising the minimum to $1.15 and covering 1.4 million additional workers.

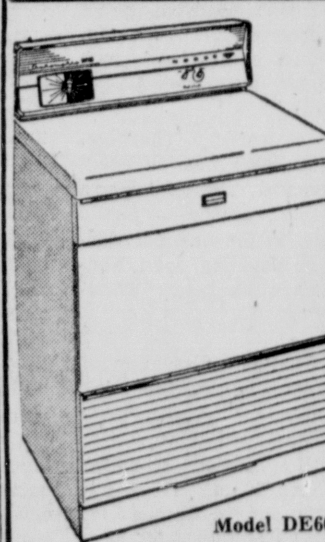

In what seemed an obvious attempt to give time for public pressure to accumulate, Senate Democratic leaders postponed Senate action on the Kennedy bill until the middle of next week.

Through its publication, "The Democrat," the national committee spelled out some of the spending benefits it said states and local communities will get from a Kennedy program Republicans have attacked as offering "pie in the sky."

road to avoid being run over. The door on his cruiser was open and the stolen car hit it, spun around in the road and hit a bank. McDole jumped out and ran through a field.

Zlatovich and Adkins both shouted for the suspect to halt and gave chase. Adkins fired five shots in the air and Zlatovich also fired three or four shots.

McDole tripped and fell near the barn on the property of Mrs. Mary Zinich. He got up to run again, but gave up when he saw both officers catching up to him. He was arrested at 4:55, an hour and 10 minutes after the chase began.

The Columbiana County sheriff's office had a cruiser on the Calcutta-Smiths Ferry Rd. in case McDole went that way. Patrolmen Sam Hayes and Howard Bosworth were in another cruiser in the vicinity to give aid. Patrolman C. E. Tice went in his own private car to help, but since positions of the stolen car changed so rapidly, both cars were unable to aid.

Chief Americo Radeschi thanked the sheriff's office, Midland police and Zlatovich for aiding in the arrest.

There was some $180 damage to Zlatovich's cruiser and $130 to the stolen car, Zlatovich said. The stolen car was taken to Midland.

Zlatovich said he arrested McDole in 1959 for the burglary and larceny of Kenny Miller's service station at Smiths Ferry. He said McDole was paroled from Rock View Penitentiary March 10, where he was serving a 1-5 year term.

Suicides are most common in the month of April and spring is the season of greatest frequency.

'There Oughta Be An Agreement'

If a citizen-taxpayer in the United State could understand how his government got bogged down in an Asiatic country called Laos, he could understand everything. He would be fitted to become secretary of state.

President Kennedy, himself, though charged with responsibility for getting the United States squared away, disagreed with the blundering that took this country into Laos. He criticized it when he was in Congress.

As he saw it then, President Truman was fooled into helping colonial France pull its chestnuts out of the fire in Indochina. It was an ill-advised and disastrous project that so far has cost the United States at least $1.5 billion with the net result that today the United States is cornered in an Asiatic blind alley and is trying to talk its way out by telling how it will shoot its way out if necessary.

Once more it is in the ridiculous position of negotiating with an armed robber over the latter's right to be playing his trade against an innocent third party.

THIS IS how it probably will work:

The United States and the Soviet Union, neither of which wants to fight in Laos or about Laos, will reach an "understanding." According to the "understanding," both will get out of Laos and will pledge themselves to stay out.

This will leave Laos at the mercy of the one that comes back.

The effect will have been to get the United States away from the scene so local Communists and their neighbors from Red China, with the help of experts from the Soviet Union, can take over Laos with no interference.

There are no Laotian ideologists to carry on the non-Communist aims of the United States. There are, in fact, no Laotians who will stand up long successfully for anything desired by the now-discredited French and the never-accredited Americans.

ANY NEGOTIATED settlement in Laos will be a triumph for the Communists.

It will be like yielding to clamor for a new law. The only people affected by new laws are the ones who observed the old laws—the law-abiders.

Law-breakers pay no attention to new laws or old laws. But they set up a clamor for more laws to tie the hands and hush the tongues of people who respect all laws.

Russia thinks "there oughta be an agreement" about Laos. The effect of the agreement will be to get the United States out of Southeast Asia so the Communists can carry on their work there as snug as termites in an abandoned lumber yard.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY, who once thought the United States blundered by getting into Southeast Asian politics in the first place, now must figure out how to get the United States off the Laotian flypaper without losing more than a minimum of prestige.

As for Communist infiltration and eventual domination of Laos, the Reds have all but clinched their ability to do that. They have the United States in a position of negotiating for an agreement to neutralize Laos, which in effect would be an agreement to let agents of the Communist Conspiracy take over the country at will.

Paying The Price Of Progress

For want of one scientist in the right place at the right time, the course of history could be changed and undoubtedly has been changed in the past. It has been changed by the presence of one man just as powerfully—Albert Einstein, for example.

This is the background for a significant plea by T. Keith Glennan, president of Case Institute of Technology and former director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, for advanced education in science. Dr. Glennan wants industry to put up money for training doctors of philosophy in the sciences. Four-year courses in engineering schools aren't enough, he explains. More graduate students are needed to teach undergraduates and to carry the burden of scientific work.

Dr. Glennan did not mention the discussion that has been boiling up around industrial support of higher education in general. But his request for more industrial support sharpens the issue whether corporate support of higher education will lead to financial domination of colleges and universities.

IT IS SURPRISING to those who think only of the danger of government domination to realize that educators are equally concerned about industrial domination, which could happen if colleges and universities let themselves become overdependent on too few private sources. They do not want education to be dominated by anyone, except educators.

Government money, they know, always has instructions attached to it. Corporate money, they are beginning to understand, would have the same effect if too much were given for specific purposes. They are wondering how to avert that danger.

They remember President Eisenhower's "farewell address" to the American people last Jan. 17, warning against the possibly adverse influence of one type of federal aid to education—contracts for research projects. "The prospect of domination of the nation's scholars by . . . the power of money is ever present," said Mr. Eisenhower. It is present not only in federal aid to education but in private aid, if influence goes with the money.

ONE SAFEGUARD is always potential, however—diversity of source. A college getting all its money from a single source could become as lopsided as a college answerable only to politicians. But a college getting its money from 11 sources could afford to be independent of all of them.

That was how newspapers won their independence, which was a tenuous condition as long as they relied chiefly on political advertising for financial survival.

But when the Age of Advertising dawned and newspapers derived income from hundreds of sources, no one source could put them out of business by withdrawing advertising.

It could be a valuable lesson for the independent colleges and universities that want to stay independent—to take a little from many, instead of too much from a few.

A Welcome Ally

Columnist Victor Riesel could prove a valuable ally in the pottery industry's battle against imports of Japanese and other ware.

While Mr. Riesel in Saturday's article reviewed circumstances which fast are becoming an old story to pottery executives and pottery workers alike, his joining the fight has this big advantage: His column is read nationwide and his thinking is highly respected in governmental and other circles which hold the key to trade policy.

The more often the industry's problem is presented the greater the hope for corrective measures.

Other noted columnists are more than welcome to get the pottery industry into the act when hammering away at the impact of foreign imports on home industry.

Odd Facts

Nine of the 50 U.S. states do not impose capital punishment for first degree murder. These are Alaska, Delaware, Hawaii, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, Rhode Island and Wisconsin.

California surpassed all other states of the U.S. in the amount of population growth during the past 10 years, followed by Florida, New York, Texas, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and New Jersey, in that order.

Astronomers calculate a star's intrinsic brightness by imagining all stars at an equal distance from the earth. Then the stars are rated on a scale where the brightest have a magnitude of less than 1 and the dimmest range around 20.

That whimsical Sam Goldwyn once warned that we ought to be careful of that atomic bomb because "it has dynamite in it." To steal his phrase — and who hasn't? — that's exactly the situation inside labor today where a split is threatening the seams over policy on a big weapons buildup. That split is full of political dynamite.

Victor Riesel

A disarmament bloc suddenly appeared inside labor. It is led, for the most part, by those who once headed the old CIO such as the Reuther brothers and Jim Carey. It is opposed by the veterans of the former AFL — such as its national President George Meany.

While there is no open battle on the shores of the Potomac, there is much cussing out each other behind the traditionally "closed doors."

This war of words is churning. The disarmament bloc is openly joining pacifist, "SANE," World Federalist, etc., groups in public meetings just at the moment Congress will be debating John Kennedy's message on heavy armament spending.

THESE PUBLIC disarmament rallies — coming during the week when pacifists are mixing their Peace Marchers with Easter Paraders — are scheduled for Washington on April 10 and 11 at the Statler Hilton and in Chicago on April 14 and 15 at the Hotel Norridge.

In Washington it will be the 7th National Conference on World Disarmament and Development. In Chicago it will be the national conference of trade unionists on "Peace, Jobs, and Freedom."

What most intrigues the AFL-CIO's elder statesmen in Washington is the scheduling of Victor Reuther by the conference there. He will discuss "What Would A Disarmed World Be Like?"

Joining him, along with over 30 other groups, will be leaders of the United Auto Workers, the International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE), the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, the Sleeping Car Porters, the Atomic Chemical and Oil Workers, the Communications Workers and the State, County and Municipal Workers.

Taking the lead in the Chicago parley will be James Carey, IUE president, and Emil Mazey, secretary-treasurer of the United Auto Workers.

IT MUST BE pointed out that some of these men have been pacifists for a long time. All of them have openly and successfully fought the Communists and have driven the old Stalinists out of the big unions.

Some have been followers of Norman Thomas' brand of benign socialism. Some are worried by what they call the "strangling taxes of the plus-$40-billion armament bill."

Some say that if we continue spending and taxing to pay this bill both industry and its workers will collapse under the load.

Some are worried by the possibility of some sudden dramatic turn in the global disarmament conference. This could bring a swift slash in the multi-billion dollar budget and a deeper cut in defense jobs — say in aircraft and missile and submarine installations.

Such men are among the group of economists who called on John Kennedy some weeks ago to prepare to substitute "peace" production for arms plants.

President Kennedy sent word that there is a task force quietly working on such an emergency project.

WHATEVER their motivation, they clash with the official AFL-CIO policy, behind which stand most of labor's high command like a chain of Rocks of Gibraltar.

This latter group just does not believe it is possible to disarm. Nor to slow down. Nor to co-exist in a cold war — because they do not believe there is a cold war.

They point to Laos and to bloody subversion in South Viet Nam's hinterland and to the invasion of India and to the Congo. And they point also to the official policy adopted at the AFL-CIO's parleys: "The first task," said the 1959 convention in San Francisco, "is to strengthen our country in readiness to defeat military aggression, immediately make all steps towards top priority in outer space technology and in ballistic weapons of all ranges.

"In this instance our government should proceed with the same vigor and expenditure of resources which President Roosevelt employed in assuring the success of the Manhattan Project in developing the A-Bomb."

"It is necessary that our government should increase its efforts to maintain adequate and full strength of our nation's conventional armed forces as well as maximum strength in the field of nuclear and missile technology and weapons."

Obviously they don't want to disarm — and sooner or later the two blocs will have it out in the open.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: I have been reading with interest all the news of collegiate battalions laying siege to the established order at the bastions of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and Bowling Green, Ohio.

I find this more interesting than the news from Laos, the United Nations, Washington, Moscow and points west. It has vibrancy and vitality. It shows the boys and girls are still imbued with the spirit of the Children's Crusades. They're still rowdy-dow, which I find heartening.

To be sure, if I were among the adults responsible for waging the battle against youth that wants to be served, I'd crack down as hard as I could. But I am beyond all that. I can be objective.

If it were legal, I could make book on the outcome, because I carry in my head a form sheet on this sort of thing. The young people always win after encountering every delaying tactic devised by the ingenuity of man, who is even more ingenious than his brother, the fox. You know why the young people are 50-1 and going easy on a sure thing?

Simple. Because they're young and their opposition is old. They will outlive all the opponents they cannot wear down. If you don't think so, look up the records of the wars waged by collegiate battalions.

Invariably they lose some skirmishes but win the war. I never made much of my college education, but it will be mentioned in my memoirs that I attended college after a fashion. I was more troublemaker than student.

Mostly I've forgotten the nature of the trouble I made, but I was in the thick of it when it came to a climax. I remember an issue about dancing, which was regarded in that faroff time as a dressed-up form of corroding vice that could lead to nothing but wrack and ruin.

The funny thing was, I became involved in laying siege to the established order on this issue though I had been born with two left feet and couldn't dance. I couldn't even keep time to music by jumping up and down.

It was fun to try, though. The night we staged the riot, we put a phonograph in the ventilating system of the gymnasium and stationed a pair of rebels to tend it. They were barricaded in a room that had only one door leading into it. No one ever reached them.

We picked the night of a hoity-toity lecture to have our fun. When the lecturer wound up his spiel in the auditorium that adjoined the gymnasium, everybody who was in on the plot streaked for the gymnasium and began to dance.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Miss Helen McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight McLean, was selected Miss Queen in balloting held by the Senior Class of Wellsville High School.

William E. Peterson of Potters Alley received an award of merit for his entry in a national shoe repair contest.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Patrolman Roy Wine returned from Columbus, where he attended a one-week police training school at Ohio State University.

Richard Beatty of Vine St., an executive of the Potters Lumber Co., received orders to report to Washington for military service.

TEN YEARS AGO — Seaman William D. Sellers of East Liverpool, a patient in the Bethesda (Md.) Naval Hospital, was judged winner of a contest for the best valentine to Lana Turner.

Francis H. Lang, a member of the executive committee of the Columbiana County Scout Council, presented a charter to Cub Pack 25 of Chester.

Reds Test Kennedy

By James Marlow

U.S. Policy Continues In Fixed Pattern

WASHINGTON President Kennedy's only real surprise for the Russians would be to try something new in American foreign policy. The one he inherited has followed a fixed pattern for years.

At this moment in Laos, the Russians, like poking him with a stick, are testing the obvious and spectacular part of his presidential leadership—how he reacts to crises they create.

Far less noticeable day by day will be the long-range test of his leadership in giving the rest of the world the will to resist communism when there is no crisis or military action at all.

Kennedy has shown dissatisfaction with this country's two main foreign policy weapons against communism—defense and foreign aid—and he has proposed changes.

But they are changes and not new concepts.

In defense he wants more hidden-missile production, such as on the Polaris submarine. He wants better preparedness to fight limited wars. He wants foreign aid made long term so the recipients can plan ahead instead of year-by-year as now.

American foreign policy in dealing with Russia was put together in spurts. With the pieces welded together it has remained basically unchanged.

Kennedy's two predecessors, Presidents Truman and Eisenhower, walked this road along which he, too, perhaps can travel indefinitely. There is no assurance it is permanently good enough.

This American foreign policy since World War II has gone through two main phases:

1. The Truman decision to give economic help to countries wishing to avoid the kind of internal collapse which invites communism.

First, it was help for Greece and Turkey, then for Western Europe, and finally for around the globe.

2. The Truman decision to discourage Communist attack, first in the form of a military alliance with Western Europe, Eisenhower broadened this with other alliances elsewhere.

But this was simply an extension of the Truman policy, not a new one. Eisenhower, however, stood firmly against tests of his leadership on the Lebanon, Formosa and Berlin crises.

But the Russians are stronger now than in Truman's day and they are stronger than they were just a few years ago with Eisenhower.

Therefore, being more confident, the problems they create for Kennedy may be far bigger and more hair raising than they dared try with Truman or Eisenhower.

Presidential Miseries

By Raymond Moley

In the past 41 years the nation has anxiously watched the bedtimes of four of its eight presidents. There was Woodrow Wilson who during 18 months of his second term was a helpless paralytic. During those months the nation had no head.

Warren G. Harding was an actuarial risk when elected.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was known to those who knew him best to be perilously ill when he ran for a fourth term.

Finally Dwight Eisenhower was felled by three serious attacks but had the distinction of having his doctors reveal every detail of his physical problems.

In the most interesting and meaningful book I have read in a long time, Dr. Rudolph Marx, a surgeon in Los Angeles, has given us a detailed clinical history of 30 past presidents. From these histories certain similarities appear which give significance to the physical ordeal to which presidents, more than most of us, are subjected.

In the first place there is the strain on the arteries and heart which the strain and anxiety of the office itself impose upon a president.

THIS WE LEARN from these histories are in part caused by the inexorable demands which we ourselves impose upon our chief executive. Even the golf games of President Eisenhower, essential to the maintenance of his health, were subject to nagging criticism by his political enemies.

Next there is the secrecy which surrounds the occasional illness of a president. No one but the intimates in 1893 knew that President Cleveland had been smuggled on a private yacht and that on the voyage an operation was performed successfully to remove a cancer which necessitated the removal of a part of his upper jaw.

There is also the confining life which a president must endure. Lack of reasonable exercise and normal living habits take their toll.

Some presidents according to the accounts of Dr. Marx accumulated inches of waistlines and pounds of excess fat. Grant, Arthur and McKinley were victims of little exercise and opulent dinners.

Also the miserable climate, in which a purely political compromise placed the nation's capital, brought to presidents for at least a century exposure to malaria, dysentery and other ailments. The hot summer has taken a drain notably in the case of the stricken Garfield in 1881.

INCOMPETENT security precautions exposed presidents to the murderous attacks of fanatics and cranks. Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley were the victims of incompetent protection.

In 1944 any informed journalist knew the truth. I tried at that time to suggest the idea that President Roosevelt was risking his life in running for a fourth term. At that time I wrote in a column a calculation to prove that despite the great increase in life expectancy among all of us the presidency had been running against the statistics.

I found that the presidents before Lincoln had lived an average of 70 years but that since Lincoln their average life had been about 63. As it happened President Roosevelt died at a little over 63.

A similar calculation, now because of the virility of Presidents Hoover and Truman, would show a smaller gap in the averages. Despite more science and better medical care, presidents are assured of fewer years than average men.

A bit of grim humor appears from the accounts in Dr. Marx's book. One President was killed because of a long speech. William Henry Harrison had been provided by Daniel Webster with an inaugural oration which he delivered for an hour and 40 minutes in bad weather. He caught a cold which killed him within the month.

Theodore Roosevelt in 1912 was shot by a fanatic in Milwaukee. The bullet first struck the thick manuscript of his speech in his breast pocket. It therefore resulted in only a superficial wound.

The old saying is that no souls are saved by a long speech. But in these cases one life was saved and one lost by verbosity.

Public Notice

In driving along the highway, the motorist often comes upon a warning sign that reads "Road construction ahead," or some equivalent.

Sometimes it states that this makes the highway legally closed to traffic, but explains that traffic is maintained and the motorist may proceed, or words to that effect.

In essence, such a sign, erected some distance ahead of the section where the construction or improvement is in progress, is a form of public notice.

The sign puts the motorist on notice as to what to expect. Often he is told that he may proceed at his own risk. Being in a perpetual hurry most drivers seem willing to take this chance.

In principle a public notice or legal advertisement published in a local newspaper has much in common with the highway warning sign described.

It may not be exactly a warning, but it puts the public or specific individuals on notice as to a proposed action and gives them an opportunity to look to their rights in the matter. Public notice, then, whether posted or published in a newspaper of paid general circulation, is an important safeguard to the American way of life.

Peace Effort Due In Congo With Gizenga

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—In the role of mediator, a Lumumbist official who is on speaking terms with President Joseph Kasavubu's central government arranged a peace flight today to the rebel stronghold in Stanleyville.

Cleophas Kamitatu, leftist president of Leopoldville Province, said he would sound out Antoine Gizenga, head of the Stanleyville regime, about joining the confederation of Congolese states that the Congo's anti-Communist political leaders are putting together.

The U.N. Congo command agreed to give Kamitatu transportation to the rebel capital 775 miles northeast of Leopoldville, but it is not a party to any negotiations.

Gizenga, who calls himself premier of all the Congo and is recognized by the Soviet-led Communist bloc and a few African states, has snubbed previous bids to join the new confederation.

Kamitatu emphasized that he was undertaking his mission as a neutral and not as an emissary of the Kasavubu government.

Kamitatu and Gizenga were both political associates of the slain Patrice Lumumba, who had advocated a strong central government.

When Lumumba was ousted by Kasavubu last September, Gizenga fled to Stanleyville and set up a rump government. He claimed the premiership after the nationalist leader was slain.

Kamitatu remained in Leopoldville and once was arrested by the central government. Since then he has shown a degree of cooperation with Kasavubu and was one of the signers of the Tananarive proclamation of confederation.

This is the most ambitious effort yet to bring about a reconciliation of the two factions.

Reports from Stanleyville, however, say that Gizenga's regime is still stoutly opposed to changing the Congo constitution to set up semi-independent states in place of the republic government.

Gizenga has challenged Kasavubu to a test of strength by demanding that he reconvene Parliament, which has not sat since Lumumba was ousted and Joseph Ileo named premier.

39 Seek Early Ballot For May 2 Primaries

The County Election Board today mailed 39 applications for disabled voters' ballots for the May 2 primaries to voters throughout the county.

Today was the first day the applications could be mailed under state law. Applications for civilian absentee ballots also became available today, the board said.

The deadline for issuing both types of ballots is April 27 at 4 p. m. and the ballots must be back in the board's hands by noon, April 28, in order to be counted at the polls.

Absentee ballots are for those persons who will be outside the county and at least 10 miles from their home precinct on election day. Disabled voters' ballots are for those who will be unable to get to the polls because of illness or disability. The attending physician must certify the reason on the applications.

Hancock Records 8 March Mishaps

Hancock County sheriff's deputies investigated eight traffic accidents in March in which nine persons were injured, according to the monthly report of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny.

The mishaps involved 10 vehicles and deputies estimated total damage at $9,100. There were no traffic deaths.

Deputies rolled up 14,742 miles in serving 341 Circuit Court papers and on road patrol duty. Deputies arrested 22 persons. Fourteen are confined in County Jail in New Cumberland, while 42 were released during the month.

The sheriff's office confined 14 prisoners, Weirton Police Department, 10, county constables, 3, West Virginia State Police, 3, and Chester Police Department, 6.

Four felony and 37 misdemeanor charges were filed. Deputies investigated one breaking and entering, transported one patient to Weston State Hospital, one to St. Francis Hospital in Pittsburgh, and took two prisoners to state prison in Moundsville.

Hanover's Board Approves Budget

The Hanover Township Board of Supervisors gave final approval to a budget of $37,113.09 for the coming year at a meeting Saturday night at the home of Fred Martin of Hookstown, R. D. 1.

Edward Wilkinson, chairman, presided. The budget is based on 3 mills property tax and a $5 per capita tax, the same as last year, Martin said.

The budget includes $1,831 for general government, $400 for protection of persons and property, $33,465.09 for highways and $1,417 for miscellaneous.

Martin said $8,907.15 was carried over from last year in the highway fund. He said supervisors discussed roads to be worked on and making application to the county for aid.

W. Clyde Sarver is the third supervisor. Next meeting will be May 1.

Lockout Seen In Stalemate Contract Talk

Unemployment by lockout loomed today for at least 2,000 members of Ohio Valley building trades unions in the wake of a contract expiration at midnight Friday and stalemated negotiations between the unions and the Ohio Valley Builders Exchange.

Although talks are scheduled to resume tonight, unemployment by lockout was indicated this morning. All unions without contracts can choose to strike or to work.

But the builders exchange, representing larger contractors in the Ohio Valley, reportedly began a lockout of workers this morning when they showed up without contracts.

Members of the unions which have agreed to new contracts cannot be locked out, but they may be sent home for lack of work.

The OVBE apparently has agreed to "hold the line" against wage increases in an effort to induce more industries to construct more plants in the valley.

Cement Finishers Local 517 agreed to new terms to break through the resistance last week when it agreed to the building exchange's "hold the line" campaign.

About 100 workers were idle this morning at the Allied Chemical Co. plant in Moundsville, indicating the lockout has started.

Executive Manager Wim van Eekersen of the builder's exchange said word of the lockout is expected to reach all contractors by Tuesday morning. Work was continuing today by some union employees as some contractors apparently hadn't received word of the lockout action.

The OVBE has refused to give in to union demands for higher wages.

The OVBE at Wheeling represents large contractors for the Ohio Valley from Chester and East Liverpool down to Parkersburg-Marion.

Searchers Find Body Of Missing Iowa Youth

WINTHROP, Iowa (AP)—A lost boy's frightening battle against darkness, snow and mud was reconstructed after the body of Jimmy Franck, 4, was found less than one-fourth of a mile from his farm home.

"The boy died of freezing following exhaustion," Medical Examiner Dr. John F. Loock said Sunday. "It was evident he had put up a struggle to get home."

Jimmy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Franck, disappeared the afternoon of March 7.

That night the season's worst snow storm hit the area and although hundreds of volunteers scoured the area, the body wasn't found until another search was organized Saturday after all the snow had melted.

3 Drivers Pay $50 Penalties

Cited over the weekend for driving without operators' permits, two East Liverpool motorists and a Wellsville man were fined $50 and costs today by Acting Municipal Judge Robert Kapp.

Four other motorists also were fined for traffic violations.

The $50 fines were handed Monday H. Williams, 458 1st Ave., and James L. Litton, 310 College St., both of East Liverpool, and Andrew Holowaty, 1116 White St., Wellsville.

Holowaty, whose license expired Feb. 1, also was fined $10 and costs for having an open container of an intoxicating beverage in his possession when he was arrested at 3:14 a. m. Friday on St. Clair Ave.

Williams was cited by city police late Saturday morning on Pennsylvania Ave.

Litton was cited Friday by the State Highway Patrol on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. after being warned about speeding. During the routine check, the patrol found his license had expired last May 15.

Donald P. Smith, 30, of 317 Burrows Ave.; Eileen Lee Bender, 35, of 600 Elson St., and Robert G. Blankenship, 28, of 800 Spring Grove Ave. were fined $10 and costs each on the patrol's charges of speeding on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd.

Snow Blamed For 8 Mishaps

In one of its busiest weekends of the year, the Lisbon State Highway Patrol investigated 14 traffic mishaps Saturday and Sunday as snowfall slicked area highways.

The patrol reported eight mishaps Saturday due to the late-season snowfall, while five more occurred Sunday. Only a few were serious, as the majority were the result of skidding on icy roads, the patrol reported.

The lone East Liverpool driver involved was James Elaw of R. D. 1, who went left of center while traveling north on Route 30 and crashed into a utility pole between 3 and 5 a. m. Saturday.

The patrol said it is still investigating the mishap. Elaw escaped injury in the mishap two miles north of the city.

Jerry King, 20, of Rogers R. D. 1 skidded into a ditch on Route 7 south of Route 14 early Saturday morning when he swerved to avoid striking an approaching auto. He also escaped injury.

Lola Prather, 19, of Salem suffered a fractured jaw and rib and face cuts in a mishap Saturday at 6 a. m. on Route 9 south of Salem. She was a passenger in the auto of Merle Welling, 24, of Salem R. D. 2. The driver fell asleep and crashed into a ditch. He was cited on a charge of reckless driving.

Clarence Bey, 68, of Clarington R. D. 1 skidded into Ernest Mayo, 32, of Steubenville at 9:45 a. m. Saturday on Route 30 near West Point. Neither driver was injured.

A tractor-trailer rig operated by Earl Hagle, 44, of Highland, Mich., overturned Saturday at 11:30 a. m. on Route 14 near Columbiana. The rig was struck by George McGaffie, 29, of Salem, who came around a curve left of center. He was cited on a charge of driving left of center. There were no injuries.

A rash of other mishaps occurred in the Salem area involving out-of-state drivers.

8 Win Awards In Egg Search

Some egg hunts and similar Easter observances in the tri-state area were postponed or canceled over the weekend because of unseasonable weather, but others went ahead as scheduled.

About 175 children participated in an egg hunt held jointly by Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 66 and the Tri-State Casting Club Saturday afternoon at the Casting Club. The event was moved indoors to the clubhouse because of the weather.

Prize-winners in the various age groups were Jim Morris and Steve Johnson, 1-6; Becky Cunningham, Kenny Cramer and Jerry Howell, 6-10; and Peggy Hill, Gerry Rice and Robert Stull, 10-15.

The Flying Wheels Motorcycle Club postponed its annual Easter egg hunt Sunday because of the cold weather. Open to all motorcyclists, it will be held next Sunday at 1:30 p. m. at Heaton's Motorcycle Shop on Wells Ave., Wellsville. Charles White is president.

Cold weather and snow postponed an Easter egg hunt for the youngsters in the Hancock County Children's Home at Pughtown. But the 17 children still enjoyed a happy holiday, as Newell American Legion presented each with a one-pound chocolate and nut egg, plus six dozen colored eggs for the home.

Treats also were provided by the Weirton Jayceettes and Cove Junior High School of Weirton.

Some 150 children participated in the annual community egg hunt held Sunday afternoon at Nicholson Field by Wellsville American Legion Post 70.

William Powell, chairman, said candy eggs and boxes of candy were given as prizes to children who located specially colored eggs.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Creative Fun Eases Way To Reading

"I've made up my mind to reduce. I don't care if I lose only a half pound a week, so long as the trend is in the right direction — down," comments a homemaker in her mid-forties.

That is a winning attitude and shows sound reasoning. Who makes the most successful reducers? Is it those who hold Dr. Garry Meyers themselves down to a rigid diet for a certain period... and lose a fast 10 pounds or 20? As a rule, no, for these are the dieters who are most apt to ride the diet merry-go-round.

Some of you psychologically must have fast results and, for you, there may be no other diet route. Still, it is helpful to take a fresh look at something as commonplace as your three meals a day. On your present pattern of eating, the weight eased on ever so gradually... "creeping pounds."

THIS SLOW gain is proof that your daily meals are just a little too fattening. Or to express it in terms of calories, your fuel intake is slightly in excess of the amount required daily. This excess, of course, is stored as adipose tissue. The accepted way to deal with accumulated pounds is to "go on a diet." What makes strict dieting so difficult? Frankly, it's hunger.

Accustomed as you are to eating well-rounded meals, with a drastic cut in calories you will feel pangs of hunger. There is little doubt on that score. There is also no question that this initial hunger will lessen in a few weeks. True, but one hungry evening you may decide, "Well, I'd rather be overweight as feel starved," and back you go to your old way of eating — which unfortunately is a little too fattening.

HAT HOME. Lola, a cheeky Chihuahua, has settled down in a man's hat in Birmingham, England. The pooch stuck her nose up at a chance to have a regular doghouse. She felt that idea was just too, too "old hat."

Such reasoning is based on the assumption that you must either go hungry or be fat. Happily, you have another choice. Experiment — it can be interesting. You can lose 25 excess pounds in a single year — without going hungry.

Subtract 250 calories a day from your regular meals. As a basis for your figuring you need to know that one pound of body fat has a calorie value of 3,500. A simple subtraction of 250 calories a day amounts to 1750 calories per week, half a pound. Multiply this by 52 weeks and you have a loss of 25-26 pounds.

IN ORDER to insure good nutrition and well-being, the 250 calories should be subtracted in the "empty" calories... the sweet desert, the extra bread and butter, the second helping.

One mother during the time her son was overseas serving his country, decided not to have the bottle of beer and the crackers she had enjoyed with him each evening. This was the only change she made in her way of eating. To her surprise, she weighed 20 pounds less by the time a year had gone by.

Ohio Jobless Get Data For Additional Aid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Jobless Ohioans may file applications for extended unemployment benefits starting next Monday, Bureau of Unemployment Compensation Administrator Donald B. Leach said today. Applicants may file at their nearest BUC office.

Leach said the temporary extended federal program applies to unemployed workers who drew their last benefit checks since June 30, 1960, and to eligible workers who may exhaust their benefits before April 1, 1962.

The approximately 65,000 expected to file claims throughout the state will do so according to the last digit of their Social Security numbers, Leach said. Claimants with numbers ending in 0 or 1 will report Monday, April 10. Those having 2 or 3, Tuesday; 4 or 5, Wednesday; 6 or 7, Thursday; 8 or 9, Friday, April 14.

The extended program was provided by congressional action with the state of Ohio acting as agent of the United States, those eligible may draw compensation up to an additional 13 weeks. The total payments will equal one-half the amount they received or were entitled to before they exhausted their benefits.

For example, Leach said, if a claimant's original determination was $1,092, paid at the rate of $42, a week for 26 weeks, under the new program he will receive half or $546, payable at $42 a week for 13 weeks. No waiting period is required.

Other requirements for eligibility, in addition to receiving your last benefit check since June 30, 1960, are that a claimant must be unemployed, not available for benefit rights in Ohio or any other state, able and available for work, must be reporting to the nearest office of the BUC, and not disqualified on any grounds.

Former members of the armed forces and federal civilian employees also are covered under the extension, Leach said.

Census Shows 'Gals' Still Outnumber 'Guys'

WASHINGTON (AP)—A decade ago the Census Bureau first reported that women outnumbered men in the United States.

Now, as results of the 1960 census roll in, the bureau says the women's margin is increasing.

The reason is women live longer. In 1950, the Census Bureau reported 100 women for every 99 men. Preliminary data from the 1960 canvass show 100 women for every 97 men—91 million females and 88.3 million males.

Band 'High Jinks' To Mark Seniors' Annual Class Play

The "extra" added attraction of the annual senior class play, "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis," scheduled Friday and Saturday nights at Westgate School, is the band hired for the homecoming dance.

Dobie remarks "there is nothing like a good, popular dance band" and that is just what "Happy Stella Kowalski and Her Scott Schottisch Five" are — nothing like one.

The group is unique, for there is not one legitimate band instrument in the whole lot. Pots, pans, buckets, sticks and plastic flutes are the "instruments."

Happy Stella and her meandering misfits render such a version of "Swanee River." The group's musical renditions are surpassed only by their appearance. No turban here, but there are some rather weird costumes, outlandish hats and make - up, topped off with blackened teeth.

Stella is played by Kathy Kaufman and the band includes, Janet Eardley, Sondra Osborne, Judy Anderson, Suzanne Bowen, and Carolyn McKinnon.

For the lovers of fine music and for those who may get the idea that students can do no better, the East Liverpool High School Dance Band, under the direction of Vincent Maola, will perform between the acts. Tickets may be purchased from members of the senior class and at the door.

Assembly Set To Study Film Censor Move

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Legislature is embarking upon another attempt to ban obscene and borderline movies.

Lawmakers want to take another look at the problem this week through hearings by the House Judiciary Committee.

A little more than six years ago, the Supreme Courts of the nation and of the state ruled that old movie censorship laws were unconstitutional. Several bills were introduced in the 1955 legislature to reinstitute censorship in some form.

But movie distributors and exhibitors objected strenuously at the time. They assured Ohio legislators that the motion picture industry was self-policing, that no objectionable film could possibly come out of Hollywood.

In the light of developments, some Ohio lawmakers believe the self-policing pattern in Hollywood and other movie capitals has broken down. Hence, the new attempt to restore censorship.

Hearings on the problem are scheduled both tonight and Tuesday morning.

Lawmakers return to Columbus late today with a heavy schedule pending, both on floor votes and on committee hearings on a wide variety of issues. This is the legislature's 14th work week.

Up for a floor vote in the Senate today is a bill, sponsored by Sen. Kenneth F. Berry, R - Coshocton, carrying stiff penalties for breaking into locked cars, stealing hubcaps and auto parts and for driving without the consent of the owner.

The Berry bill would smack first offenders with a top fine of $500 plus six months in jail. Later violations would draw penalties ranging from one to five years for theft of auto parts and one to 20 years for driving without consent.

Among bills up for a vote in the House is one which provides for the disposition of funds in a conservancy district which breaks up. It would apply, first, to the 17-county Scioto - Sandusky Conservancy District which was disbanded just a few months ago.

The latter conservancy district fund, during its 20 years, built up about a $300,000 balance. The bill would split up the fund in proportionate shares and let commissioners spend it for flood control or water management if no new conservancy district is formed or sought within a year.

If the bill is passed and signed by the governor, live counties—Franklin, Pickaway, Ross, Pike and Scioto—will consider formation of a new and smaller district.

Meanwhile, the House Finance Committee wrestles for still another week with the $2 billion state operating budget and the House Judiciary Committee takes a look at 25 proposed bills. Another house committee again will take a whirl at jobless pay legislation in an effort to keep the state unemployment compensation fund from going broke.

The House Industry and Labor Committee will be considering a bill to increase employer contributions to the jobless insurance fund. Tacked on to the bill when it finally emerges from committee probably will be some of the provisions — Republicans call them "corrective" — which prompted Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle to veto an earlier unemployment benefits bill. The GOP has given up on any attempt to override the veto.

Thieves Get $200,000 At Grand Rapids Firm

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — Police and the FBI today sought burglars who carried off an estimated $200,000 in gold, silver and gems as loot from a jewelry firm Sunday.

An abandoned green sports shirt smelling of tear gas and some burglar tools were major clues.

Thieves broke into the H. R. Terryberry Co. and stole the valuables from eight safes. The firm is a manufacturer of school rings, pins and specialized jewelry.

Police said the burglars set off a tear-gas trap in a futile attempt to open three more safes.

Clubwoman Claimed

Ann Landers ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

I often wonder how many murders are committed by people who grew up in a private world of violence and terror.—G.M.

Dear G.M.: Thank you for an excellent letter. In this column, as well as in thousands of personal letters of advice that go to readers every month, we hammer away at the difference between discipline — which is eas-

Dear Ann Landers: Occasionally people write and ask what to do about neighbors, relatives or friends who abuse their children.

Congratulations, Ann, for urging them to contact the juvenile authorities or a service agency. Often people hesitate to interfere. I wish some kind soul had "interfered" in behalf of my sister and myself.

Not all mothers have normal tender feelings toward their children. Some who suffer disappointment and failure take it out on their little ones who can't fight back or escape. Of course they are mentally ill but they don't understand this and neither do their children.

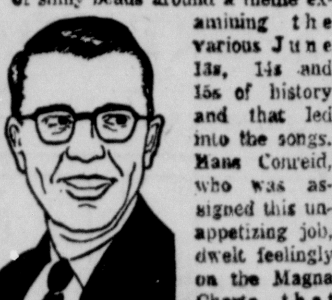

My mother used to beat my little sister with a rolling pin or a wet dish cloth to make her eat. Naturally the anticipation of the beat-

On "Perry Presents" (Perry Como, NBC-TV 8.9 p.m.) the writers strung together their row of shiny beads around a theme ex-great document that insures all human beings some rights on this earth. And that led to Theresa Brewer's singing: "The moon belongs to everyone." "The best things in life are free." That may be the confoundedest song cue I've ever heard and, believe me, I've heard some pretty far out ones.

Getting the Magna Charta mixed

This always has been a tasteful show either in black and white or in color. That is, if you like uninterrupted songs. Not everyone does.

BOTH THESE SHOWS are unbalanced in favor of the vocalists with too little, if any at all, of comedy or dance or any of the other components of a variety show. Frankly, I don't mind but I have seen people walk out on these shows because of their single-minded preoccupation with song.

"Brenner" a new series based on the work of plainclothes police, opened on CBS-TV 10 p.m. EDT Saturdays and I must say I was taken by the looks of the first I saw (second in the series). It opened with a couple of plainclothes police, one a rookie, the other a veteran, inspecting the neighborhood through a telescope.

Another Evening With Fred Astaire

The most famous feet in the world already have begun to tap for an October show that safely can be adjudged in advance as a four-star event. This is the only kind of show Astaire knows how to do, though his modesty doesn't allow him to attribute his perfectionism to anything but long, arduous rehearsals. His work record provides him with a good argument.

Astaire gave about three months of his time to his initial television performance last October, and here he's already at work on a show that won't see the light of home screens for months.

"Like I said," remarks Astaire, "I'd be nothing without lots of rehearsal time."

"My main concern is to do a show that will have a freshness about it and won't look like the last one. It's not easy, believe me."

IT'S THIS time — consuming devotion to perfection that prevents Astaire from accepting more than one television show a year. After all, he has other interests.

On his movie agenda are a few commitments, and recently he added book writing to his preoccupations (his autobiography, "Step in Time," will be published this month). He also has nine TV Emmys on the mantelpiece to keep polished.

"It was sort of bewildering getting all those Emmys," remarked Astaire, who made an unsuccessful attempt at returning one of them—the best actor award—to the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

"When I heard the protests about my getting the best actor award, I wanted to do the right thing

Parade of Presidential Hopefuls

Democrats Beat Path to Labor

By VICTOR RIESEL

There were almost as many ready-to-run candidates as there were ready-to-wear buyers in this big garment town of New York these past few weeks. The presidential candidates, like the buyers, headed for the same industry. But unlike the buyers, the candidates were on the selling side — with a "soft sell" technique.

They were the Democratic hopefuls — hoping to win labor sup-

Union leader David Dubinsky, dynamo and source of power in New York's unique Liberal-party: Alex Rose, 'president of the Hatters Union, whose friends kid him about being the Jim Farley of American labor but who won't run second to Jim in any political chess game and Jack Potofsky, head of the influential Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union, founded by his friend, Sidney Hillman. And, of course, Stu Symington.

For two hours they talked national politics. Sen. Symington respected his hosts' political sophistication too much to do anything but talk like a candidate. He never actually said he was. But everything he said said so.

Misdirected Wrath

By David Lawrence

So the American plane was unable to return the fire of the enemy planes! What a strange impact this has had on Congress. One would have thought there would be a great deal of indignation expressed against the enemy's wanton act. Instead, an avalanche of criticism was directed against the Navy for allowing a plane assigned to a reconnaissance mission to be without adequate armament. But wasn't the American plane's peaceful errand thereby emphasized?

Union-represented workers on Aug. 24 will get an automatic pay increase of 9 cents an hour. They'll also get bigger fringe benefits

It was an act of war. It was an attack on the American flag.

What will Congress do about it? Will those same members who are so ready to criticize the Navy because its plane had its armament removed to make way for reconnaissance equipment now stand ready to demand redress from the Communist country which started the shooting?

WILL THERE BE any group of congressmen who will advocate that diplomatic relations with the Kremlin be severed, since that government is primarily responsible for what its allies — Red China and North Korea — do?

It was Russian MIG fighter planes which attacked the U. S. Navy plane. The survivors of the attack say they saw a red star on one of the enemy planes.

Painless Retirement

By Hal Boyle

The problem of letting go is very hard.

It is hardest, of course, on the individual who reaches a corporate retirement age and still wants to keep on working, usually for the same corporation.

The main loyalty of his life outside his family has been tied to his job. He often feels he has been able to adjust better to the changing demands of his job than to those at home. Sometimes, as he is needed less at home when the children are on their own, he feels the need to be bigger at his office.

Then, usually at 65, the office doesn't need him any more.

What is done to cushion a faithful employee against the stunning fact that he is no longer a corporate necessity?

Few corporations today do more cety," said Wilgus. "All they need is a little steering before they leave their jobs."

"The main idea was to get people thinking about retirement, so that when it came it wouldn't be such a shock to them. The one day a week off at 64 helps get them used to the fact they will have more time on their hands and should find a way to spend it well.

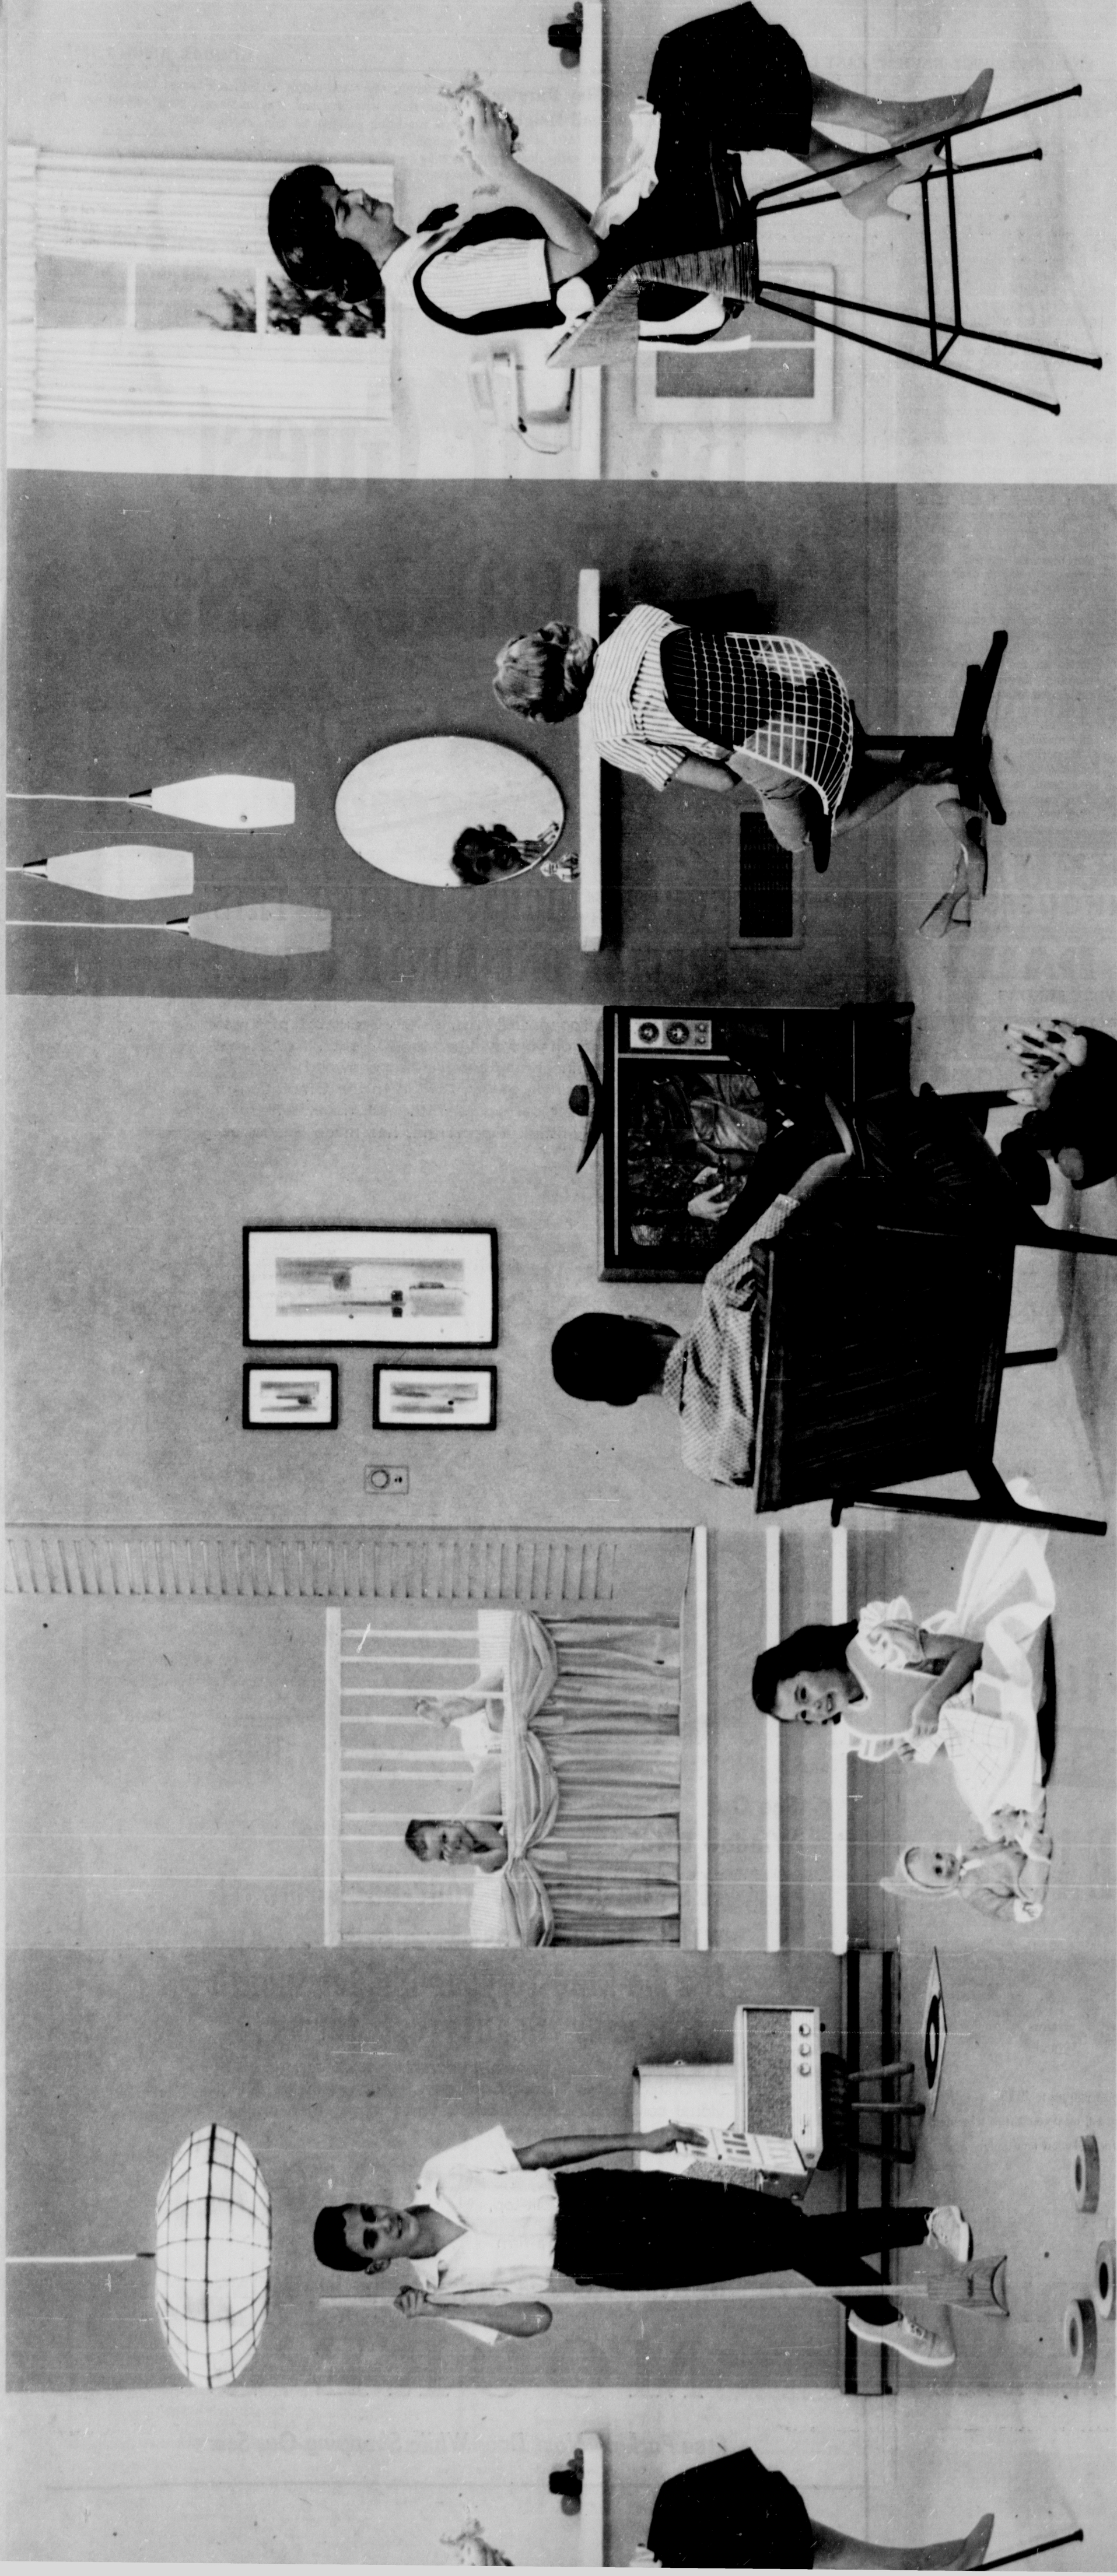

The human cry now is: It is terrible to retire people. We try to show them what they can do to be happy."

WHAT ARE the results? "The main benefit is that they think in advance on a systematic basis about the problems of retirement," said Wilgus.

"They all go out with a fishing rod in mind. Very few actually go on into other employment. Most don't want a full-time job because they can't collect social security if they earn more than $1,200 a year."

Will the whole situation change?

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our druggist is a very friendly person. He's the jolly type—in his early 50s I'd guess, and a great kiddier of the women. At least I think he's kidding.

Several of us girls are on a reducing program. We buy the weight control powder from him and he takes a personal interest in how we are doing.

He has a scale in his back room and every week we come in and get weighed. He keeps a chart on us and every time a gal loses 5 pounds she gets a bottle of cologne.

My question is this: Do you think it's proper for him to feel where the weight is coming off? He claims he's checking for flabbiness and that we must strive for good muscle tone, as he calls it.

My husband got mad when I told him yesterday. I say this is part of the druggist's profession. How about it?—MINUS 30.

Dear Minus: Tell the kiddier to check with his eyes and to keep his hands to himself. All dieters should visit a doctor regularly and exercise along with the dieting, following the doctor's instructions. He will tell you how your muscle tone is doing.

Dream-Busters

Dear Ann: My husband and I have just finished building a lovely home which has been the dream of my life.

Last week my husband's mother and his aunt came to see the house. They suggested a special kind of rubber tile for the bathroom floors. They raved about it, said it was easy to keep and so on.

Yesterday my husband came home with samples of the tile and informed me that the man had been out to measure the floors while I was at the beauty shop. I asked him who had made the selection and he said his mother and aunt.

I'm so furious that he did this without consulting me that I'm considering a divorce. If he thinks their taste is so good maybe he doesn't need me at all. Am I justified?—ON FIRE.

Dear On: Would you cut off your head to get rid of a headache? Well, it makes as much sense as divorcing a man because he let his mother and aunt pick out the bathroom tile. I agree he was inconsiderate and thoughtless. Tell him how you feel and if you are unhappy with their selection insist that it be pulled out and replaced with your choice in a year or so.

Privacy Invaders

Dear Ann: Will you please tell me how to deal with friends and neighbors who don't wait for me to answer the doorbell—but just walk right in?

My husband becomes furious when this happens and it seems to happen often. Several times he has been caught in the living room, wearing shorts and undershirt—sometimes barefoot.

The intruder then puts on a show of being horrified to find a man half-dressed in his own home.

He has told a few of them off but it doesn't help. He claims it's my place to lay down the law. Do you believe I should get tough with the walker-inners at the risk of losing their friendship? They all mean well.—ANTI-SURPRISES.

Dear Anti: What have you got against locks? They actually work. I suggest you try them at once.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Burglars Loot Vacant House

St. Clair Township Police Constables John Jackson and Harry Skelton are investigating the burglary of a vacant summer cottage off Route 170 about a mile north of Calcutta.

Bed clothing was stolen, including pillows, in an entering which occurred between March 18 and last Friday, according to Jackson. The owners of the cottage are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mitchell, 1035 Erie St., Thomas Clark of Route 170, near Calcutta, and James Hilton of Wellsville.

Two other cases of theft and vandalism also are under investigation.

Carl Welling, who is in charge of the Thayer McDaniel farm at Sprucevale, reported that vandals overturned the tractor on the farm between 9 and 11 a. m. Friday while he was absent. Welling said he left the tractor near the house when he left the farm and when he returned two hours later he found it overturned behind the barn.

The vandals also turned loose the hogs and chickens on the farm, Welling reported.

Loren Griffin of Glenmoor reported to the constables Sunday morning three large pedigreed rabbits were stolen from a hutch on his property sometime between 10 p. m. Saturday and 9 yesterday morning.

Meanwhile, the constables were called to a Substation home Saturday night at 5:50 on a report a man was creating a disturbance. They took into custody Harrison J.

Ferguson, 56, formerly of East Liverpool, and discovered he walked away last Dec. 12 from Massillon State Hospital, Jackson reported. He was taken to the County Jail at Lisbon and hospital authorities returned him to Massillon Sunday morning.

The two books of the New Testament having the most chapters are the Gospel of Matthew and Acts of the Apostles, each with 28 chapters.

Officers Slay Burglar In Cleveland Heights

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland Heights police early today shot and killed a burglar who broke into the Firestone store at 12420 Cedar Road.

The man, about 25 years old, was not identified immediately.

Detective Capt. Earl Gordon said the man was shot by Sgt. Michael Cannon and Detective Edward Smith, who were staked out in the store with shotguns. The store was being guarded, he said, because of a series of burglaries at Firestone stores in recent weeks. The Cedar Road store had been burglarized twice in the last six weeks.

Capt. Gordon said the burglar broke in the front door of the store about 5 a. m. and was leaving with a television set when the officers commanded him to halt. When the man refused their command, the officers opened fire and shot him as he was going out the door, the captain said.

Lisbon Church Women Stage Retarded Children's Program

The Lisbon Council of United Church Women conducted an Easter service Thursday morning at the school for retarded children at Elkton.

Assisting with the program were Mrs. Ben Wilson, her sons, Tod and Rod, and the Lisbon Lassies 4-H Club.

Mrs. William Spangler led devotions and Miss Diana Boso read the Scripture. Mrs. Ralph Boso told a story and Mrs. Wilson and sons entertained with songs and instrumental selections.

Mrs. Ray Beers, Mrs. Dea Ward and Mrs. Richard Bowling will help at the school weekly during April and May.

Misses Ariel Yost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Yost of N. Market St., and Mary Gallo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gallo of N. Beaver St., who are employed in Cleveland, arrived Friday evening to spend the Easter holiday at their homes.

Mt. Union College students home for a week's vacation include Misses Bonnie Crosser, Mary Lynn Heim, Becky Walters, Kay Rodi and Bob Adams and Charles Faust.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gonzales of Harrison St. visited over the weekend with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Raley, in Westerville.

Howard Bye and daughter, Miss Ruth Bye, of W. Lincoln Way, have returned from a month's vacation at St. Petersburg and other points in Florida.

Church Blaze Started By Boy Mental Patient

WILLOUGHBY, Ohio (AP) — A 15-year-old Willoughby boy, home from a psychiatric hospital in Columbus for the Easter holiday, impulsively started a fire in the 77-year-old First Presbyterian Church here, police said.

Damage was estimated unofficially at $20,000. The fire, which broke out four hours after Easter services ended Sunday, was confined mainly to social rooms of the church.

The boy had come to visit the pastor, the Rev. William P. Gross, who said he had known the youngster for several years and was aware of his detention for setting a house afire a year ago.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Steady, Planned Weight Loss Seen Best

In kindergarten or the first grade the child will have occasion to cut, paste, draw, color and paint. If you watch a group of these young children at school you can easily pick out those who have long practiced such activities at home. Also you will notice some children who seem not to have done the like before.

One of the first things a child two or three can do is to fill in color with crayons between the bold lines of a picture meant for this purpose. Lots of inexpensive color books are on the market. Using them can be fun for the very young child. He likes to choose different colors, he learns to keep within line boundaries, and he gains in hand-eye co-ordination.

BUT MANY children are kept too long with coloring books. It becomes a deadening activity and hampers the urge to create. For most children the coloring book loses its usefulness, except for mere busy work after about four.

Given crayons, a pencil and large sheets of paper, the youngster very early can be encouraged to draw his own pictures and color them if he chooses to do so; even to paint pictures without first drawing them. Then he's on the way to graphic creating.

At three or four the child can learn to cut with scissors (short, snubbed-nose ones for safety). At first he may just like to cut merely for the fun of cutting.

Before long he will like to cut out pictures from old newspapers or magazines and, later, to paste them onto a large sheet of cardboard or heavy paper and, still later, on pages of a scrapbook.

CUTTING OUT and pasting pictures cultivates useful skill and affords a great deal of fun. Out of this activity the youngster inclines to classify the pictures he chooses to cut out, and he tends to paste them in groups. He may thus organize his choices more and more if you offer some helpful suggestions.

For example, he may search for pictures of dogs or of pets or other living things; of foods, furniture, clothing, toys and tools. Out of such experiences he may be readied to select, with your help, even before entering school, groups of pictures naming things which rhyme like cat, bat, hat, and paste these pictures on a single sheet of cardboard or heavy paper.

ALSO HE MAY get fun at finding, cutting out and pasting on a page the pictures of things which begin with the same sound like boat, bail, bat. Thus he gets practice not only in classifying but also in recognizing sounds which are alike, getting practice in phonics, getting ready to read.

My bulletins, "Letting Baby and Tot Learn" and "Beginnings of Imagination", may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Modern Bathroom Adds To Beauty Of A Home

Two of the easiest ways to decide whether your home is modern or not are to look at the kitchen and to look at the bathroom. When remodeling is undertaken, the bathroom is generally the last room to be considered — and it's a shame.

For the bathroom of today can be one of the most attractive rooms in a home.

The most important innovation of this modern era, as far as decorative bathrooms are concerned, is the color of fixtures. Now you can choose matched fixtures in almost every color anyone could desire.

There are so many colors in all the fixture and accessory lines, in fact, that an all-one-tone bathroom would not be difficult to achieve. A modern bathroom will do more for you than just add to the beauty of your home, however.

With plenty of convenient facilities, the family's morning and evening "line-up" will soon be a thing of the past. When the bathroom is made more convenient and attractive, mothers often find it much easier to get the children to perform their "wash behind the ears" routines, too.

And, always an important consideration is the increased resale value of your home when it has a modern bathroom.

When you get ready to remodel your bathroom, it would be wise to consider adding an additional bath or half bath at that time.

It is often less expensive to have the two jobs done at the same time, and is sometimes simpler if you plan to have the work financed.

Most homes do have the space for this extra bathroom — in unused closets, under stair ways, in an unnecessary pantry, and sometimes even in an extra-large bedroom. If you are in doubt, a contractor can give you the answer and the estimates quickly.

The most important step toward making sure that yours is just the bathroom you want, is advance planning.

Before any work begins, see to it that all the plans are on paper. It's much more economical to make changes on paper than after construction has started. So, make sure it is all there, and that the contractor fully understands what you want.

New Law Outlined In Social Security

There has been an important change in the Social Security Law about how much money you may earn after retirement age, and still receive some of your benefit payments.

According to William J. McCauley, manager of the Youngstown Social Security office, the change affects those who earn more than $1,200 a year. If you earn more than $1,200 in 1961 or later, $1 of your benefits (or your total family benefits) may be withheld for each $2 of your earnings over $1,200 and up to $1,500. For every $1 in earnings over $1,500, $1 in benefits is withheld.

As in past years, McCauley said, no benefits are lost if you earn $1,200 or less in a year nor for months you earn $100 or less and are not rendering substantial services as a self-employed person. Neither will you lose benefits for any month in which you are age 72 or over.

If you are past retirement age, (age 65 for men and age 62 for women) and have not applied for your social security benefits, it may be to your advantage to get in touch with the social security office now.

7 Freight Cars Derail

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Seven freight cars on a Pennsylvania Railroad train derailed in suburban Hilliard late Sunday, but police said no one was injured.

The purest water of any lake on the North American continent is the distinction claimed by Green Lake, at Spicer, Minnesota. Its water is 98.99 per cent pure.

LARGE AND LUXURIOUS. This really large home is designed for a luxury-loving family. It has eight rooms spread over 3,600 square feet of living space, with four bedrooms and a den. The architect is Lester Cohen, Room 75, 117 West 48th St., New York 36, N. Y. and the plan is HA181C.

Steel Demand Upswing Seen As Favorable

CLEVELAND (AP) — Market analysts are convinced that favorable signs of an upswing in steel demand are not of the will-o'-the-wisp variety, Steel Magazine said today.

Orders should climb steadily during the second quarter as construction increases and manufacturers step up their output of durable goods, the metalworking weekly said.

Steel said March output was about 7 million tons—up 12 per cent from February's 6.2 million and the largest of any month since last June.

This week's production will be about the same as last week's 1,620,000 ingot tons, Steel said.

Heavy products have shown a gain. Steel said eastern mills report the number of orders placed has been increasing more rapidly than aggregate tonnage. This indicates many users have depleted their inventories, the magazine added.

Steel said mills making galvanized sheets are benefiting from the upturn in building activity. Although some mills can still ship from stock, the magazine said, many are quoting three to four weeks' delivery, and some have nothing to offer under six weeks.

If the recent upturn in auto sales and production continues, Steel said, it may trigger the release of more steel orders in May than the mills have been expecting.

Steel said a recent survey it conducted shows the latest postwar business recession has run its course. It predicted a slow rise in the general economy, leading to a genuine recovery during the last half of the year.

Exports of U.S. scrap are providing support for the scrap market, Steel's price composite on prime grade of steelmaking scrap held at $38.67 a gross ton last week after rising for six straight weeks.

How To Combine Your Hardboard, Plywood Strips

AP Newsfeatures

Question: I need some quarter-inch plywood for a project I am working on.

I have a piece of eighth-inch plywood and a piece of eighth-inch hardboard left over from a previous job. Can these two materials be glued together successfully to give me the quarter-inch thickness I need?

Answer: Yes, plywood and hardboard can be glued the same as though you were gluing two pieces of plywood or two pieces of hardboard. If the material is to be used outdoors or otherwise will be exposed to the weather, be sure to use waterproof glue.

QUESTION: There is a leak from our kitchen faucet. I turned off the water and took out the faucet stem, but the washer screw is so badly chewed up that the screwdriver will not grip properly and the screw will not turn. Since the leak is slight, I put everything back together again. How can I remove the screw?

Answer: Dig out the old washer with an ice pick or some similar pointed tool. The head of the screw then will be completely exposed. Take a pliers, grip the screw head and turn counter-clockwise. If the screw refuses to turn, do not force it. Put a few drops of oil around the shank of the screw and let it alone for 15 minutes or so.

Then try again. If it still won't work, apply full pressure with the pliers. This is a calculated risk and may break off the screw. If that happens, you'll have to get a new stem or have the screw drilled out by a machinist.

Here Are Some More Facts Of Interest To Home Owners

AP Newsfeatures

From various sources came these bits of information of interest to home owners:

You may have read somewhere that a solution of sodium hypochlorite or trisodium phosphate is excellent for removing mildew.

Don't let those terms throw you. Either of those chemicals is present in most household cleaners, as the labels will attest.

Insulation beneath the floors may solve the problem of hard-to-heat rooms that are built over unheated garages, porches or crawl spaces.

A new type of exhaust and attic fan features a drive that eliminates belts and pulleys, with the motor located right in the airstream.

An economics professor's recent statement that in housing "there are no recognized hallmarks of quality" has brought an answering blast from builders, who point to such things as grade-marking of lumber, seals of approval by underwriters' laboratories and other testing agencies and many other identifications that denote quality products.

Tests show that the installation of acoustical tiles over plaster ceilings reduce a room's normal noises by upwards of 40 per cent.

When painting a screen, the dried paint sometimes clogs part of the mesh. The usual procedure is to take a toothpick or similar pointed gadget and push out the paint, which works all right but is a long and tedious process.

A better way is to go over the screen with a scrub brush, firmly but without excessive pressure. Be sure to do it after the paint is thoroughly dry.

Flying insects around the home are not necessarily termites. They may be one of several types of ants, including the carpenter ant.

A termite inspector can tell instantly which is which — and immediate attention often can forestall serious damage.

Twenty years ago only one new house in 10 featured drywall construction. It is estimated that about 80 per cent of the new homes built this year will have interior dry-wall construction.

Broadway Show Gets First Play On Pay-TV

NEW YORK (AP) — For the first time a current Broadway stage show was displayed live Sunday night over a pay-television circuit.

"Show Girl," a revue starring Carol Channing, went in its two-hour entirety to the 5,800 subscribers participating in the Telemeter installation at Etobicoke, Ont., a suburb of Toronto.

The performance, given before an audience at the Eugene O'Neill Theater, was taped simultaneously for repeat showings over the same circuit later in the week.

Home Buyers Get Smarter

By ANY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

A prospective customer on a used car lot sometimes will give a tire an authoritative kick.

Presumably, this is a testing method that will reveal the number of miles of service still in the tire. But the used car dealer can be fairly certain the tirekicker knows very little about automobiles. The test is useless.

In much the same way, years ago, home buyers would attempt to hide their lack of knowledge by conducting little tests intended to uncover poor quality but actually of no value.

Home buyers these days are far wiser. For one thing, many of them are buying a home for a second or third time.

Experience has taught them what is important in a house and what isn't. For another, they have become educated to the importance of good construction by the increased reading material on this subject available to them in newspapers and magazines.

Builders have discovered that home shoppers ask knowledgeable questions that cannot be dismissed with perfunctory answers.

Sales representatives of the builders must really know what's in the house as well as how many rooms it has. Some builders have conducted regular training periods for the salesmen to be certain that the information is correct.

From experience, the builders have learned which questions are asked most often by prospective buyers.

On the matter of electricity, for instance, there has been much written and advertised about circuits with insufficient power for modern conveniences. Buyers want to know, therefore, whether the circuits will handle all appliances without the necessity of electrical additions at a later date. This was a question virtually no one asked 10 or 15 years ago.

Other frequent questions concern the waterproofing of the foundation, the distance between studs, the plumbing and heating units.

There is considerable interest in sound transmission between rooms. Siding and roof shingles also get attention. How often must the exterior be repainted with that particular kind of siding? And are the shingles of the type that will stay in place under high wind conditions?

Home buyers these days know what they want.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I renovate some tarnished brass?

A. Mix a cleaner consisting of three ounces of rouge, 12 ounces of turpentine, one ounce of oleic acid, one-half ounce strong ammonia, and one ounce denatured alcohol. If preferred, it may be perfumed by adding oil of sassafras (10 minims). The preparation is mixed by shaking and apply it with a cloth. After removing the tarnish and dirt, precipitated chalk may be used to finish the polishing and remove excess cleaner.

Q. How can I treat tired feet?

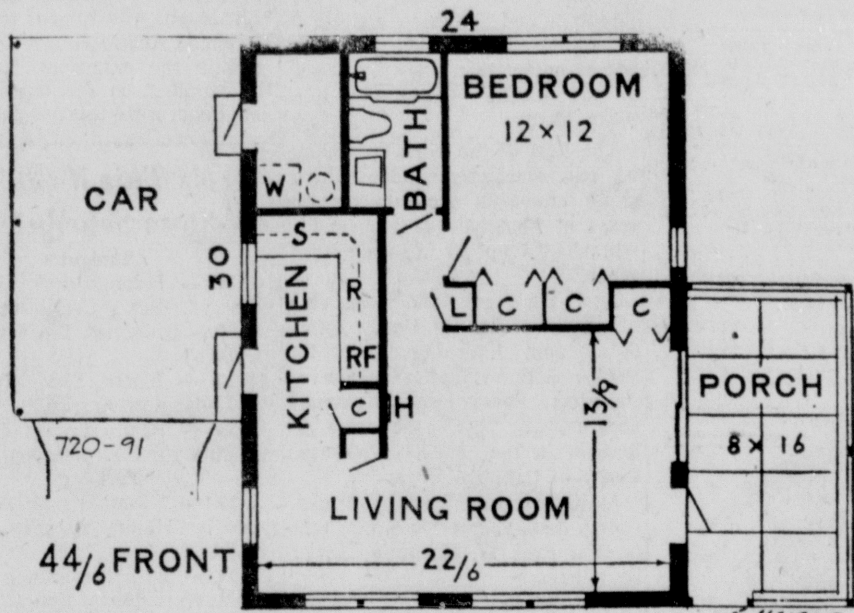

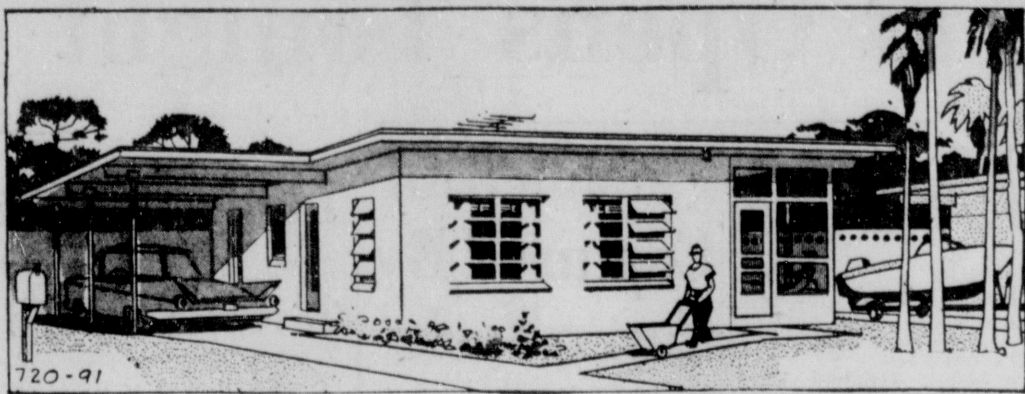

A. Add a tablespoonful of soda to a pint of common bran and put into a basin, dampening with sufficient hot water to make a paste. Immerse the feet in this for ten or fifteen minutes, and relief will be felt.

Q. How can I clean felt hats satisfactorily?

A. Add enough cleaning fluid to a teacup of flour to make a paste. Rub this on with a brush and let dry. Then brush off with a stiff brush.

Redecorating Tips Outlined

With manufacturers turning out water-base paints, easy-to-apply paints, odorless paints, easy-to-apply wallpapers, plastic wall tile, do-it-yourself floor tile, pre-cut chair covers, curtains and drapes to fit any window ever set in a wall, and a thousand other items which formerly took the services of a skilled mechanic or artisan, it is little wonder that the average home owner no longer hesitates to tackle a redecorating job.

According to a survey made of the results of several hundred of these attempts, it develops that about one-half are either good or passable, but the other half were better left undone.

The half that failed to measure up to a respectable result failed for the simple reason that the home owner disregarded or was unfamiliar with a few of the basic principles of decorating. There was fresh color galore and new, bright atmosphere, but no smooth and attractive decorating effect.

Probably the greatest mistake made by unsuccessful amateur decorators is the failure to consider the color of their furniture and redecorate to blend with it.

Walls must be painted in a color that is most flattering to the wood. Blonde woods are enhanced by warm, quiet colors, such as rose, beige, cinnamon, chartreuse and moss green. For mahogany furniture, elegant colors such as antique gold, royal blue and deep reds bring out the rich mahogany tones. Walnut looks best against a background of cream, Nile green or gray-beige.

For rooms with poor light or northern exposure, paint walls with warm pink, corals or yellows. For too-bright rooms, the walls should be of cool blue, blue-green or blue-gray. The color of drapes which are not to be replaced must be taken into consideration. Above all, avoid color clash.

Grace U. P. turned on the steam to whip St. Stephen's, 32-7. Dennis Horger was the big gun with 14 points while Craig Talbott tossed in 12.

Dick Smith was high for St. Stephen's with three markers.

Boyce Methodist rolled into the semi-finals by lacing Chester Methodist, 33-10. Hooker and Evans each tossed in 10 points.

Oakland Free Methodist was extended before nipping Second Presbyterian, 20-19. K. Page and Lane tossed in seven points apiece to pace the attack. Joe Golden had four points in Second Presbyterian's losing cause.

Dykes Looks At Pitching

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP)—The so-called experts may disagree, but Cleveland Manager Jimmie Dykes says the Indians' pitching staff is the team's strongest suit.

Jim Perry, long felt to be a sure bet for the opening day assignment in Detroit a week from Tuesday, now is no certainty. And it's not because Perry has faltered in the spring exhibition games.

"It will be one of four," said Dykes Sunday. "Perry, Gary Bell, Mudcat Grant or Johnny Antonelli."

The manager also is impressed by the work of rookie southpaw Bob Allen and plans to use him in relief. He points out, however, that Allen could get a crack at a starting job if one of the starters slips.

Two of the big four—Bell and Antonelli—worked Sunday as the Indians dropped a 6-1 decision to the San Francisco Giants at Phoenix. A pair of home runs by rookie roommates — Bob Barley and Tom Haller — produced five runs. John Romano's seventh inning homer accounted for the lone Cleveland score.

Bell pitched six innings in which he yielded four hits and two runs. He walked two and struck out four. Farley's two-run homer in the sixth produced the first earned runs off Bell in 15 innings this spring.

The fourth straight efficient performance by Bell should provide further reply to cynics who questioned whether the 24-year-old right-hander had recovered from his sore arm miseries of 1960.

The only reason Bell was trailing 2-0 after six frames was that the Giants' Sam Jones was even better. Jones' blanked the Tribe on four hits.

Antonelli hurled the final two innings and was tagged for four runs on three hits—and some bad breaks. The veteran southpaw set down the Giants in order in the seventh frame.

The Indians had seven hits. Only Bubba Phillips and the pitchers failed to come up with at least a single.

Grant drew today's pitching assignment against the Boston Red Sox.

Records Tumble In AAU Swim

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—The nation's short-distance swimming hopes were pinned today on the capable shoulders of Steve Clark, an 18-year-old high school senior from Los Altos, Calif.

Clark staked a solid claim to being the world's fastest swimmer by winning the 100 yards freestyle in an incredible 46.8 seconds Saturday night in the Amateur Athletic Union's (AAU) indoor championship at Yale.

During the three-day meet, national records tumbled in 13 of the 14 swimming events. American marks were eclipsed in all seven finals Saturday night.

The team title went to Southern Cal with 74 points. The New Haven S. C. was second with 44½ and the New Trier S.C. third with 21.

Two Sure To Stick

LAKEHURST, Fla. (AP)—Two who are sure to stick with the Detroit Tigers this spring — unless traded — are first baseman Larry Osborne and outfielder George Thomas. Both have been optioned to the minors three times — the limit.

Osborne won the triple crown in hitting in the American Association. He hit .342, had 34 homers and batted in 119 runs with Denver. Thomas hit .283 with 13 homers for Birmingham.

Russell, Defense Difference

Celtics Take Game Edge, Blast St. Louis, 129 To 95

By BOB HOOBING
BOSTON (AP) — Defense and Bill Russell are the reasons the Boston Celtics have the jump on St. Louis in the National Basketball Association playoff finals.

"Russell was the key—his defense and rebounding," Coach Red Auerbach of the defending world champions said after Sunday's 129-95 triumph over the Hawks.

The best-of-seven series resumes here Wednesday night. The 6-10 Russell grabbed 31 rebounds, blocked seven goal-bound shots and on two other occasions had goaltending called on him when he had diverted "sure" shots. He also had 15 points and assisted on four other goals.

"He was just fabulous," Auerbach added.

"This is still going to be a dog-fight," chimed in Frank Ramsey who was a Kentucky teammate of St. Louis' Cliff Hagan, the game's high scorer with 33 points. "Wednesday is the important game. If St. Louis wins we're in trouble. If we win we have a good chance to win one of those televised weekend games in St. Louis and wrap it up in five."

St. Louis coach Paul Seymour, not very optimistic at the Hawks' chances without injured pivotman Clyde Lovellette, heard today he might have the big guy for Saturday's third contest.

Burdette May Wind Up In Bullpen For Braves

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Painfully aware that his Milwaukee Braves must have a top flight relief pitcher for an all-out battle for the National League pennant, Manager Charlie Dressen has just about decided to send Lew Burdette, his right-handed starting ace, to the bullpen.

The Braves did something about relief help last Friday, obtaining two question mark hurlers, Moe Drabowsky and Seth Morehead, from the Chicago Cubs for surplus infielders Andre Rogers and farmhand Daryl Robertson.

But he still could fall back on Burdette for relief work.

Their pitching staff, once their greatest asset, may have been weakened by winter trades to plug holes at second base and shortstop. Starter Joey Jay and Juan Pizarro went to Cincinnati and the White Sox, respectively, and relief pitcher Terry Fox went to Detroit. Ironically, Fox has won the No. 1 relief job with the Tigers.

The Braves unquestionably strengthened themselves at second and short with the acquisition of Frank Bolling from Detroit and Roy McMillan from Cincinnati but they left themselves without an established center fielder when they gave up Bill Bruton to the Tigers.

"We're not as badly off in the outfield as some people think," said Dressen. "I've got three center fielders, any one of whom can do the job. John Demerit has improved tremendously. Al Spangler won't embarrass you in the field and he'll get on base even if he doesn't hit the long ball. The other is Felix Mantilla, who has been switched from the infield."

Lee Maye apparently has beaten out the late-reporting Wes Covington for the left field berth. Milwaukee has the best right fielder in baseball in Henry Aaron.

The Braves are overloaded with infielders with Joe Adcock at first, Bolling at second, McMillan at short and Eddie Mathews at third. It may be the best infield in the league.

Del Crandall, baseball's No. 1 catcher, will handle virtually all the work behind the plate although Charley Lau will be around if needed.

Dressen scoffed at any mention of a pitching shortage — aside from weakness in the bullpen.

"You won't find a better top

Gibbon Shines In Pirates 4-1 Win Over St. Louis; Spahn Notches 4th

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The end of the rainbow is just 12 steps from Milwaukee mound marvel Warren Spahn, who can latch on to the pot of gold this season by becoming the first left-handed pitcher in National League history to win 300 games.

That's one of the few honors left for the tireless, ageless Spahn, a 20-game winner 11 times, the top active southpaw with 288 victories, and at 39 still the ace of the Braves' pitching staff.

Spahn has shown no signs of slowing down this spring while preparing for his 17th season in the big time. He has won four exhibitions without a loss—the latest a nine-inning, five-hit effort that stopped the Kansas City A's 9-2 Sunday.

Backed by Hank Aaron's three consecutive homers, Spahn faced only 30 men, striking out three and walking none as he tuned up for Milwaukee's opening day pitching assignment.

Outstanding pitching jobs also were turned in by New York's Whitey Ford and Pittsburgh's Joe Gibbon. Ford shut out Cincinnati 1-0 on a six-hitter while Gibbon hurled four innings of perfect ball in the Pirates 4-1 win over St. Louis.

In other games, the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped Minnesota 7-3, Baltimore belted the Chicago White Sox 11-5, San Francisco beat Cleveland 6-1, Philadelphia defeated Detroit 7-4, the Chicago Cubs edged Boston 5-3 and the Los Angeles Angels downed San Diego of the Pacific Coast League 7-6.

Moose Skowron's homer was all

Ford needed and all he received as he became the first Yankee pitcher to go the distance, limiting the Reds to six singles. Skowron's blow was the first of three hits off Jay Hook, who worked the first seven innings for Cincinnati.

Gibbon, Jim Umbricht and Fred Green checked the Cardinals on five hits while the Pirates pounded route-going Bob Miller for 11 safeties—three by Dick Groat. Umbricht gave up the St. Louis run on Julian Javier's single and a double by Walt Moryn.

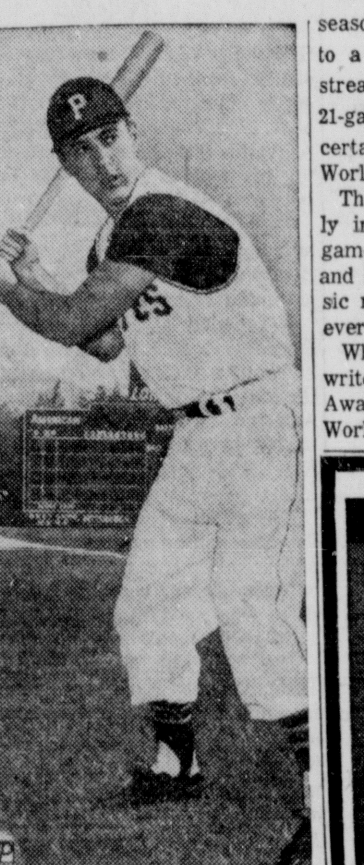

Although laced for 13 hits, Dodger lefty Sandy Koufax went the distance against the Twins and held them scoreless until Lenny Green hit a three-run homer in the ninth. Triples by Charlie Neal and Bob Aspromonte paced Los Angeles' 11-hit offensive. Earl Robinson's two homers, the second a grand slam that capped a nine-run uprising in the eighth inning, carried the Orioles to their win over the White Sox. Round trippers by Giants' rookies Bob Farley and Tom Haller along with six innings of scoreless pitching by Sam Jones beat the Indians.

Dick Ellsworth struck out eight in four innings of two-hit hurling while Ed Bouchee smacked a two-run homer for the Cubs against the Red Sox. Five hits by Tony Taylor and four by Pancho Herrera paced the Phils' attack after Art Mahaffey was knocked out of the box when a liner by the Tigers' Bill Bruton nicked his elbow.

Julio Becquer stroked three hits and batted in four runs, including the clincher in the eighth, as the Angels came from behind to whip San Diego.

Good Year To Mazeroski Means Hitting .300 Mark

BILL MAZEROSKI Looking For .300 Season.

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP) — Ever since Bill Mazeroski's World Series clinching home run beat the Yankees out of $3,203 per man, people expect him to turn slugger for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

"I have no such idea in mind," says the trimly-built 185-pound sixth second baseman with the boyish crewcut and grin to match. "All I hope to do this season is have a good year."

But, he was told, you had a good year in 1960, hitting .273 and driving in 64 runs while batting eighth. You opened the home season with a home run and closed the World Series with the big one. You hit 13 homers, counting two in the Series.

"To me," Maz continued, "a good year means hitting .300. Maybe then I wouldn't be batting in eighth place. I'm just going to hit the ball — let's say swing at the ball — where it's pitched. The home runs will drop in for themselves. (In 1958 he hit 19 homers).

"I've never tried to hit home runs, except maybe when the ball and strike count was in my favor. In that final World Series game I went for broke because the score was tied. Had we been behind my job would have been to get on base."

the right man. His was a Ruthian wallop. But this year Maz is going for the singles and doubles and a .300 average. Maz thinks he can do it even though his career average for 667 games is .266.

Just A Minute George, Find The Right House

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — George Sisler Jr., general manager of the Rochester Red Wings of the International League, left a meeting at the home of the club's president, Frank Horton, to get an empty reel for showing some World Series movies. When he returned, he didn't bother to knock.

He headed for the cellar stairs and almost bumped into a young man who stood there, looking quizzically at him.

"What do you want?" the youth asked.

"Uh — nothing, I guess," Sisler stammered as he turned to leave. He had entered the wrong house.

Icy Pavement Blamed After 2-Car Mishap

Five minor traffic mishaps marred East Liverpool traffic over the weekend, but no one was injured. Slippery pavement was blamed for one of the wrecks and another was a hit-skip crash.

A collision at Market and 5th Sts. at 8:20 a. m. Sunday damaged a 1959 sedan owned by Leo J. Frazier, 152 Pennsylvania Ave., Chester, which was struck by a turning 1959 four-door operated by Donald L. Schussler, 647 Spring Grove Ave., police said.

Schussler told officers he was turning left off 5th St. onto Market St. when his car skidded on icy pavement, hitting Frazier's. Chrome was torn off the left rear door of Frazier's car and there were scratches and dents on the left side, police said. Schussler's car was undamaged.

The hit-skip crash occurred on E. 4th St. Saturday at 11 a. m., damaging a parked 1953 two-door sedan owned by Patricia Headley of Glenmoor, police said. The auto was hit in a brief interval while it was parked in front of the Mary Patterson Memorial, damaging the tail pipe and manifold, officers said.

A foot which slipped off a brake pedal was blamed for a collision Sunday noon at Jackson and W. 5th Sts., police said.

Halted for a traffic light, a 1953 sedan driven by William Beatty of Grandview Rd., Chester, was struck from the rear by a 1952 sedan operated by Gary D. Lones of R. D. 2, officers said. Lones told police his shoe sole was wet, causing his foot to slip off the brake pedal.

There was damage to the rear bumper, splash pan and trunk of Beatty's car and the front bumper of the Lones car, officers said.

A collision at Peach Alley and Summit Ln. at 5:35 p. m. Saturday involved a 1955 coupe operated by Glenda A. Simms, 22, of 2026 Ohio Ave. and a 1953 four-door sedan driven by Earl E. Temple, 31, of New Waterford R.D. 1, officers said.

The cars met at right angles at the intersection of the two alleys, police said. The right front door of Temple's car was damaged, but there was no damage to the local auto, police said.

Just five minutes earlier, Temple's auto had been involved in another collision on W. 5th St., officers said. In a crash at 5:30, his sedan was involved with a 1957 model roadster operated by David Mumaw, 22, of 308 Ridgeway Ave. Temple apparently was on the way to police headquarters to report the first mishap when the second occurred.

Slide Blocks New 4-Lane Ohio Road

IRONTON, Ohio (AP) — Dynamite was being used today to clear an estimated 30 to 40 tons of rock blocking one westbound lane on the new four-lane U.S. 52 about a mile west of Chesapeake.

The slide Sunday, following heavy rains, also threatened the second westbound lane. The two eastbound lanes remained open.

James Robinson, state district highway superintendent, said the route would be closed temporarily during the blasting.

The slide occurred near another slide last February which broke the pavement of the highway which had been opened only last December.

Robinson said meanwhile that an estimated 5,000 to 7,000 tons of dirt threatening to block Ohio 7 near Crown City will have to be cleared. The dirt is being pushed toward the highway by a hill on the move.

Ohio 775, closed by a similar slide near Wilgus a month ago, remains blocked. Robinson said continuing rains since the slip have interfered with work to reopen the route.

Ohio's Attorneys Advised To Better Press Relations

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "Sel-dom, if ever, does it pay to battle the press, because you rarely win."

These were the words of advice given to lawyers in an unsigned column in this month's issue of The Ohio Bar, official publication of the Ohio State Bar Association.

Urging cooperation "in every way with members of the news media," the article told lawyers that their "relationships with the press, radio and television, regardless of what part of Ohio you reside, can stand improvement."

And that comment, it added, "is probably a great understatement."

The article went on: "Whether we like it or not, the 4th Estate is a mighty public opinion force in our community, undoubtedly the strongest force, regardless of whether it is right or wrong."

"Whenever you are approached by a reporter, be gracious and answer all his questions forthrightly. Never refuse to comment. No matter what your reasons, refusal to comment always is interpreted as if you have something to hide.

"Few reporters claim to know everything, especially about the legal profession, the courts or the law. It is then your responsibility to explain the various phases of the law in such a manner that the public will understand.

"This often will require speaking in terms of an 8th grade education, but in order to reach the majority of laymen, this is necessary. Do not frown upon a reporter because he is not versed in the law. Do the reverse, understand and help him with his write-ups on your cases, motions, petitions, etc.

"It is better to take time and explain your case than it is to ignore his inquiry and find a distorted and unintelligible story in the newspaper."

"So let's disregard the mistaken attitude that only members of the legal profession have a right to know what's going on in our courts and within the profession. The pub-

Swim Saves Pilot Injured In Fatal Crash At Dayton

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A small airplane lay half-submerged in the Miami River, a dead man under it and an injured pilot clinging to its tail.

Airport Manager Harold Johnson, 36, took off some clothing, jumped into the icy water and swam to the plane with a piece of power line. He attached it to the plane, swam back and handed the line to three persons on shore, then returned to the injured man.

The three men on shore pulled the plane to the river bank with Johnson holding onto the craft and the injured man.

This was the rescue that Johnson related after the single-engine Piper Cub took off from South Dayton Airport Sunday, climbed steeply and spun into the river when its motor stalled.

Killed was Carl Carryer, 33, of Springfield, a passenger whose body was found under the plane. The pilot, M. Sgt. Alex Maselovitch, 42, also of Springfield, was taken to nearby Wright-Patterson Air Force Base hospital suffering broken bones.

Maselovitch, stationed with the Air Force's 38th Tactical Wing in Germany, had bought the used plane Saturday. He was flying it to Springfield where he planned to dismantle it, then ship it to Germany to help form a military flying club.

4 Pages Of Questions

Peace Corps Applications Received By Post Offices

Post offices in East Liverpool and Wellsville have received supplies of Peace Corps volunteer questionnaires for distribution to interested persons.

Postmaster Sam Brown said his office has been given eight of the forms, containing four full pages of questions. The Wellsville post office received 12 of the questionnaires, according to Postmaster Elmer Evans.

The minimum age for applicants is 18. Interviews will be given to applicants within six months of filing. Some of the cities in which interviews will be given include Akron, Cleveland, Youngstown, Columbus, Steubenville and Mansfield.

Brown pointed out that married couples without children under 18 are eligible to file for the Peace Corps proposed by President John F. Kennedy to aid underdeveloped nations.

Selections will be made only after applicants have completed training. The questionnaires pointed out that volunteers should have "technical ability, physical stamina and emotional stability and must be able to adapt themselves to an unfamiliar way of life with peoples of all colors, religions, races and cultures overseas."

The usual length of service will be two years. Many of those selected will work and live apart from other Americans. The ability to speak a language other than English often may be necessary.

While both East Liverpool and Wellsville post offices received only a few of the questionnaires, anyone interested in making application for the Peace Corps may secure a form by writing "Volunteer Questionnaire, Peace Corps," Washington, 25, D. C., after the supply at local post offices has been diminished.

Phone Stickers Issued To Speed Fire Reports

To avoid misplaced calls, city firemen said today small stickers carrying the department's emergency phone number are available to place on the cradles of telephones.

Because minutes can be precious in an emergency, firemen said they ordered the stickers because of the many calls they receive from people seeking volunteer fire departments or police.

Available at all four fire stations, the stickers were provided Local 24, International Association of Fire Fighters, by an insurance company.

Firemen warned the number is for emergencies only. Routine calls for information should be placed on FU 5-1117.

Calm Mom Saves Child From Well At Hamilton, N. Y.

HAMILTON, N.Y. (AP) — The mother took off her coat, acting calmly but quickly. She sent her son David, 6, running for help.

Then she climbed 24 feet down a well to save her daughter, Barbara, 4, from drowning.

Mrs. Arthur Linsley plucked Barbara from the water. Then she braced her back and feet against the rough walls of the dark, three-foot-diameter well and waited.

David hid his part. He ran a half mile to the nearest house.

Firemen arrived in 15 to 20 minutes. Mrs. Linsley estimated, "I was getting a little shaky," she related Sunday after firemen pulled her and Barbara to the surface with ropes.

Barbara had lost her balance and tumbled down open shaft in an abandoned house.

The experience began with an Easter drive into the country from Hamilton, where Mrs. Linsley's husband is a professor of paleontology at Colgate University.

The children spotted the abandoned house and asked to explore it. In her fall, Barbara missed protruding stones that enabled Mrs. Linsley to get a foothold in her descent.

Son Born To Runaway Heiress, Ex-Chauffeur

NEW YORK (AP) — Gamble Benedict Porumbeau, 20, runaway heiress who married a Romanian-born former chauffeur a year ago, has an heir of her own.

Mrs. Porumbeau gave birth Sunday to a 6-pound, 13-ounce son in a New Jersey hospital.

"She was delighted, especially since it was a boy," said Dr. John Langstadt of New York, her personal physician.

He said her husband, Andre Porumbeau, "also was very happy and was certainly delighted that it was a boy."

Mrs. Porumbeau presently is embroiled in a court battle over her grandfather's estate, which is reputed to run into the millions.

2 Easter Crises Met

President Weathers Plot Threat, Trouble In Laos

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Kennedy figured in two crises over the Easter weekend, one a reported assassination-plot against his family and the other involving Southeast Asia.

The President and his smartly dressed wife attended Easter Sunday church services under a doubled security guard because of deep concern about the Kennedy family's safety.

On the international front, the President's attention centered on what he called the potentially dangerous situation in Communist-threatened Laos.

The President has had no comment on reported plots by pro-Castro Cubans to kidnap his daughter Caroline, 3, or assassinate the entire Kennedy family—father, mother, Caroline and John Jr., four months.

Secret Service agents have had the Cuban suspects — three men and a woman—under around the clock surveillance.

While the President has been keeping mum publicly about all this, he and his wife obviously were aware of the extra precautions the Secret Service took to safeguard them.

A crowd estimated at up to 1,000 had assembled in the vicinity of St. Edward's Catholic church long before the President and the First Lady arrived—almost 10 minutes late—for 10 a.m. Easter Sunday Mass.

The first precaution the Secret Service took disappointed the crowd. The usual route from the Kennedy estate was changed and the President and his wife slipped in through a side door of the church almost unnoticed.

Well in advance of the Kennedy's arrival, Secret Service men augmented by local, county and state police had filtered into the roped-back crowd to keep a close watch for any potential trouble-makers.

The First Lady wore a pale blue two-piece shantung dress—a straight skirt with a collarless overblouse with seven buttons down the back—and a matching pillbox hat.

On their arrival the Kennedys were ushered swiftly to a pew just inside the side door. They usually sit on the opposite side, near the back.

At the end of the service the side aisle was cleared and the Kennedys left by the front door. Both smiled and the President waved to the applauding crowd as they walked to their car.

Over 30 Best Drivers

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — After giving aptitude tests to 20,000 drivers, Dr. Donald Schuster of the University of Southern California says married, former servicemen over 30 make the best drivers.

The worst drivers are unmarried teenagers and men who frequently change jobs.

Women appear to be better drivers than men, Dr. Schuster says, but they drive only a fifth the miles men do.
